~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Honorable

The Secretary of State,

Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of a report of the Naval Attaché dated July 8, 1941 concerning Victor KIBALTCHICHE, better known as Victor SERGE. The Naval Attaché states that according to an informant this alien is now "anti-Stalin", with "Trotskyite" tendencies. At the same time he is supposed to have maintained close relations with KRIVITSKY, as well as with TROTSKY, and considers that his life is endangered by the C.P.U. This informant adds, however, that according to Kibaltchiche's own statement he is carrying certain documents, originating originating in Russia, which indicate the complicity of the G.P.U. in the assassination of Trotsky.

Mr. Kibaltchiche's activities and the possibility of his applying at this office for a transit visa for the United States were the subject of telegram no. 129, dated May 26, 1941, from the Department; and in Consular Despatch no. 38 dated June 24, 1941 a full report was made on this alien's activities in the Dominican Republic up to that time.

Respectfully yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. FOXWORTH

Re: Death of Leon Trotsky

On the night of September 19, 1941, Colonel Kendall of the Office of Naval Intelligence telephonically advised that some time ago he had been contacted by a representative of the Bureau - identity unknown - concerning one Victor Serge in connection with the death of Leon Trotsky.

Colonel Kendall stated that he had just received a report from the Naval Attache in the Dominican Republic which reflected that Victor Serge had been reported to be in possession of documents regarding the death of Trotsky, and that Serge had attempted to leave the Dominican Republic for the purpose of going to Mexico, but upon his arrival at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, he had been forced to return to the Dominican Republic as the Haitian authorities would not allow him to pass through Haiti.

Colonel Kendall stated that this report further reflected that Serge had shipped two suitcases which probably contained the documents aforementioned aboard the SS "Borinquen" of the Puerto Rico Line, which left the Dominican Republic on September 16, 1941. He stated that these suitcases were addressed to Mrs. Nancy McDonald, 117 East Tenth Street, New York City, and that in all probability these suitcases would be reshipped to Mexico.

A copy of this memorandum is being furnished direct to Mr. P. J. Wacks.

Respectfully,

W. A. Collier

Reference is made to the memorandum of Supervisor W. A. Collier dated September 20, 1941, captioned "Death of Leon Trotsky" regarding information submitted to him by Colonel Kendall of the Office of Naval Intelligence concerning the above-named individual and the fact that Kibaltchiche had shipped two suitcases via the SS "Borinquen" of the Puerto Rico Line, which suitcases allegedly contained information regarding the death of Leon Trotsky and complicity of the OGPU regarding the assassination of Trotsky. Colonel Kendall further advised that these suitcases were addressed to Mrs. Nancy McDonald, 117 East Tenth Street, New York City, and in all probability would be reshipped to Mexico. The SS "Borinquen" left the Dominican Republic on September 16, 1941.

Inasmuch as the above-mentioned suitcases may contain certain information of value regarding OGPU activities in the United States, the writer pursuant to instructions of Supervisor Harry M. Kimball telephonically contacted Special Agent E. F. Emrich of the New York Office. The above information was submitted to Agent Emrich and he was requested to make arrangements to determine the contents of the suitcases. Agent Emrich advised that he would have the Customs officials transmit these suitcases to the appraiser's office in New York City where the contents of the same would be determined.

Agent Emrich advised that matter would be given immediate attention and a report concerning the same submitted in the very near future.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the telephonic conversation between Special Agent E. F. Enrich of the New York Office and Supervisor P. J. Wacks of the Bureau on September 23, 1941, regarding the above-named individual who had allegedly shipped two suitcases to the United States aboard the SS BORINQUEN.

Agent Enrich was advised that he should make appropriate arrangements to determine the contents of the above-mentioned suitcases.

You are instructed to advise the Bureau regarding the status of this particular investigation.

Re: VICTOR KIBALCHICHE,

ESPIONAGE - R.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated October 9, 1941 transmitting two rolls of photo record film containing approximately 1400 prints of material written mostly in a foreign language.

In accordance with your request, the two rolls of film which you enclosed with your letter are being returned under separate cover together with three enlarged copies of each print and three copies of the summary translations. You will note that one set of the enlarged photographs has been separated in order that the appropriate reports of the translator might be attached thereto.

It appears from the translator's reports that the correct name of the subject in this case is Victor Alexandrovitch Kibaltchiche, who uses the pen name Victor Serge in his writings. Kibaltchiche, who appears to have been a close friend of Lenin, Zinoviev and Trotsky, was banished from Russia in 1936. One of the unsigned letters dated August 26, 1940, believed to have been written by Kibaltchiche, refers to the death of Leon Trotsky as the work of Stalin's OGPU and requests that he be furnished with more details in this regard. Another unsigned letter dated February 14, 1941, written in the French language by an unknown individual indicates that General Walter G. Krivitsky's death has affected Kibaltchiche greatly since the latter had known Krivitsky for many years.

It may also be noted that several of Trotsky's works have been translated by the subject of this case, including the "Revolution Betrayed" and "The Crimes of Stalin". He appears to have also written "Portrait of Stalin", in which the murderer of Trotsky is revealed.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated October 14, 1941 wherein it is requested that the Bureau be immediately advised in respect to the status of instant investigation.

This is to advise that on September 24, 1941 the subject's package was examined by Special Agents H. G. FOSTER, and A.F. SPIGNER at the appraisers stores, United States Customs, New York, and the documentary material contained therein, the greater proportion of which was written in a foreign language, was photographed.

This material consisted of the following:

A great number of Communistic books and manuscripts, the majority of which were written by the subject, many articles and excerpts therein appearing under the subject's name; personal and business correspondence; several address books and diaries.

By cover letter dated October 9, 1941 the two rolls of developed photo record film taken of the above described documents, consisting of approximately 1,400 photographs, were forwarded to the Bureau for enlargement and translation.

Under date of October 30, 1941, the Technical Laboratory has not as yet submitted a report. As soon as this report is received, the instant investigation will be carried as rapidly as possible to a logical conclusion.

William Purman

Verdigen, Amsterdam

In his collected works, Mr. Wilson is clear and forceful in his criticism, and hopes for the victory of peace and the peaceful abolition of slavery. He favors the Confederacy in the present war. He states that he is the only remnant of the friendly group, that party having dissolved with the death of Lincoln. He desires to believe in some form of universal harmony, but states that he is not a member of any organized party.

As Mr. BERGE is a brilliant, well-informed person, and is apparently well-acquainted with recent events in Europe and in Russia, some of his more pertinent comments are given:

Of Russia:

"The Red General Staff during my time emphasized bacterial warfare more than chemical warfare. I believe that the Army has developed this to a high state of perfection. The Russian military commission in Washington could probably give more recent and detailed information on this subject. As the Russian army possesses knowledge of this type of warfare, it can be logically assumed that the German General Staff is well acquainted with the same formulae.

"The Russian submarine fleet is much larger than is generally known. Every effort was made to conceal the true size of this under-water fleet.

"Moscow will probably fall within the future, but the war will be continued by a Popular Front government. Stalin will certainly go if Russia loses, and will probably go if Russia wins. A victorious Russia will think in terms of a Socialist Democracy.

Of Refugees:

"There are two classes of refugees - political, a majority of whom are without money, who can be readily identified, and who are genuinely pro-Allied in political sentiment; and economic - composed chiefly of Jewish people. In many cases these latter people have considerable funds and are prepared to bind themselves in order to retain funds that still remain in Europe. However, it is doubtful if there are many true first-class agents among this group. Large numbers may serve as 'puntos' and are obedient to the commands of the Gestapo. To illustrate, Paul ROBINLSCHER arrived in the Dominican Republic in the same ship with me. He had considerable funds, carried a Haitian passport, and was enroute to Venezuela. If he follows true to the pattern that I know from years of observation of the C.G.P.V. (and there is no reason to suppose the Gestapo works differently), ROBINLSCHER will take up residence near some oil field or key point, will live a legitimate commercial life until such time as his service can be utilized."

Of the situation in Martinique:

"Martinique is more Nazified than Marseilles."

OF KNEVITSKY:

"Without doubt KNEVITSKY was killed by the O.G.P.U., yet KNEVITSKY had not revealed all that he knew of the O.G.P.U.'s activities in France. As proof of this, even after KNEVITSKY had become anti-Stalin and was a hunted man, the O.G.P.U. did not find it necessary to change its agents in France. They knew that KNEVITSKY was anti-Stalin, but was always pro-Russian."

Of French Communists:

"Most of the agents in the Popular Front in France escaped to the United States at the time of the German invasion. Chief among these Communist agents is Lucien XVOCEL."

Mr. SEARCH stated that Alexander XBARMINA, ex-Russian ambassador to Greece, who is now in the United States, is one who would be in a position to serve as an advisor on Russian questions. He also named Boris XNICOLAEVICH, a Russian Monarchist in New York, as one who has an excellent knowledge of the activities and organization of the O.G.P.U. in the United States.

Mr. SEARCH is still in the Dominican Republic. He is said to be waiting for a transit visa through Cuba enroute to Mexico.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated November 6, 1941 pointing out that your investigation of this matter was being held in abeyance pending receipt of a report from the Technical Laboratory in connection with two rolls of photo record film transmitted with your letter of October 9, 1941.

In view of the Bureau's letter dated December 8, 1941 with which you were furnished photographic copies of the material found in the possession of the subject together with summary translations thereof, it is requested that this investigation be afforded the necessary attention in order to bring the same to a logical conclusion without undue delay.

Very truly yours,

In connection with the case entitled AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION; ESPIONAGE - R (New York file 65-7471, Bureau file 61-5381),

[redacted] has been furnishing much information which he has received from various employees and representatives of the Amtorg Trading Corporation, especially from VLADIMIR YAROSLAVSKY.
The latter [redacted]

In the Amtorg file there is a letter dated March 2, 1942, in which informant wrote that on March 2, 1942, he saw YARO-
SLAVSKY at the Amtorg Trading Corporation and at that time YARO-SLAVSKY told informant about the following individuals:

Informant was advised that there is a new international Trotskyite center established in Mexico that will cause trouble in the United States eventually. YAROSLAVSKY stated that such men are VICTOR SERGE, who at one time served a prison term in the U.S.S.R. for counter-revolutionary activities, and JULIAN GORKIN, who was tried by the Republican Spanish Government for starting a revolt against this government during the Spanish civil war and who was found guilty of treason. YAROSLAVSKY further stated that there also is MARCEAU PIVERT of France and GUSTAV REGLER of Germany. Informant was advised [redacted]

Informant was further told by YAROSLAVSKY that these men, along with many others, are carrying out anti-American, British, and Russian propaganda throughout Mexico and Latin America. He further told informant that these men are cooperating with the Axis agents.

YAROSLAVSKY further told informant that the above are good men to keep an eye on. (C)

On March 4, 1942, when Confidential Informant [] was personally interviewed, he advised that he was unable to furnish any additional data concerning the above facts as the above was all that YAROSLAVSKY said to him. However, informant stated he would continue to obtain more information from YAROSLAVSKY concerning the individuals mentioned hereinbefore. (C)

A check of the New York indices revealed that Subject KIBALTCHICHE uses the pen name VICTOR SERGE in his writings. The above-captioned case (Bureau file 100-36676) contains information that VICTOR SERGE was imprisoned in the U.S.S.R. in 1932 but escaped in 1936 and went to France. (C) (u) (D)

In New York file 65-4088, entitled DANIEL LAWRENCE, with aliases, et al; ESPIONAGE - R (Bureau file 65-19915), there appears a Bureau letter to New York dated February 28, 1942, which makes reference to VICTOR SERGE and JULIAN GORKIN of the Spanish P.O.M. A copy of this letter is being placed in the New York file of the LAWRENCE case. (C) (u)

It also has been noted that MARCEAU PIVERT is a subject in a closed New York case entitled MARCEAU PIVERT; ESPIONAGE - R, New York file 65-2643, and a copy of this letter is also being placed in the PIVERT file. (C) (u)

The New York indices further reflect that GUSTAV REGLER is mentioned in the reports of Confidential Informant [] dated September 12, 1940, and October 13, 1940, which are in New York personal and confidential file 65-3137. The Bureau has copies of these two reports. (C) (u) of the Defense, Superintendent of the Files of the Secret Police, under orders of KRASSIENE in 1919, First Congress of the Third International. He was a writer for the "COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL". Subject spent a long time in Germany (during the revolutionary preparation of 1923) and in Austria. He returned to Moscow in 1925. He was extradited and imprisoned in 1928, deported to Orenbourg in 1933 and banished from Russia, his Soviet nationality taken from him in 1936. Contents of his luggage photographed reflect numerous pamphlets, books, newspaper articles, personal letters and miscellaneous notes and diaries. He had a marriage certificate dated August 18, 1919, at Petrograd, probably his own. His son, VLADIMIR ALEXANDROVITCH KIBALTCHICHE was born in May, 1920, at Petrograd. He has a daughter, JEANNIENE, born at Petrograd February 28, 1935. His wife is an invalid and is probably identical with the individual writing to VLADIMIR on May 19, 1941, from a hospital in France. Subject has lived with and received mail addressed to LAURA SEJOURNE in Marseilles, France, during the last few years. SEJOURNE was born October 24, 1911, at Aquila, Italy, and is a French film actress (assistant). Subject's correspondence reflects numerous attempts to obtain visas to the United States and Mexico and the names of those aiding him. Subject finally left France and was [redacted] unclassified per Navy let 4/29/87 SP4ew/abx 5/25/88

[redacted] in the Dominican Republic at which time KIBALTCHICHE stated that he is first and foremost an anti-Stalinist but politically a Socialist Democrat. Subject advised that TROTSKY'S party ended with the death of TROTSKY and that KRIVITSKY was without doubt killed by the O.G.P.U. Bureau letter to New York reflects subject was in Mexico on January 1, 1942, and according to confidential informant [redacted] is establishing a new International Trotskyite Center in Mexico along with JULIAN GORKIN, MARCEAU PIVERT and GUSTAV REGLER. Informant also indicated that EUGENE LYONS, MAX EASTMAN, SIDNEY HOOK, BERTRAM D. WOLFE, and GEORGE SOKOLSKY

Letter from New York Office to Bureau dated 3/12/42.

DETAILS:

AT NEW YORK CITY:

The name and aliases set out in this initial report of the subject were obtained from various manuscripts belonging to KIBALTCHICHE.

This investigation is predicated upon a letter from the Bureau dated October 14, 1941, confirming the telephonic conversation between Special Agent E. F. EMRICH of the New York Office and Mr. P. J. WACKS of the Bureau on September 23, 1941, regarding the subject of this case who had allegedly shipped two suitcases to the United States aboard the S S BORINQUEN which suitcases were reputed to contain documents of possible interest from the internal security standpoint.

On September 24, 1941, Special Agents H. G. FOSTER and A. F. SPIGNER photographed the contents of the two suitcases belonging to the subject, the whole contents of which were written and printed in foreign languages. By New York Letter dated October 9, 1941, approximately 1400 prints of documentary materiel was submitted to the Bureau's Technical Laboratory in Washington, D. C., and on December 8, 1941, the Bureau returned copies of each print and three copies of the summary translations of the documents to the New York Office.

Under letter from the Bureau dated December 16, 1941, the New York Office was furnished with photostatic copies of a report of this case was [redacted] which reflected that the subject [redacted] at Ciudad Trujillo, (S-1) W

Dominican Republic, on August 14, 1941. This informant reflects that VICTOR SERGE, pen name of the subject, states that he was a member of the Comintern and Red General Staff, was imprisoned in 1932, and escaped from Russia to France in 1936. He stated that TROTSKY'S party disappeared with TROTSKY'S death and advised that he is Socialist-Democrat. He further revealed that he is first and foremost anti-Stalin and predicts the replacement of STALIN with a popular Front Government. He states that the Red General Staff built more submarines than publicly admitted. (S-1)(X)(4)

[redacted] further reflected that according to SERGE there are two classes of refugees—the Pole, a majority of whom are without money who can be readily identified and who are genuinely pro-ally in political sentiment; and the economic class composed chiefly of Jewish people. In many cases this latter class has considerable funds and is prepared to bind themselves in order to retain funds that still remain in Europe. However, it is doubtful if there are any true first class agents among this group. Large numbers may serve as "puntos" and are obedient to the commands of the Gestapo. SERGE at this time gave the following illustration: -

He stated that Pole ROBIZSCHEK arrived in the Dominican Republic on the same ship with him; he had considerable funds; he carried a Hatian passport and was en route to Venezuela. SERGE is here quoted as follows: "If he follows through to the end that I know from years of observation of the O.G.P.U. (and there is no reason to suppose the Gestapo works differently) ROBIZSCHEK will take up residence near some oil field or key point and live a legitimate commercial life until such time as his services can be utilized." (S-1)(X)(4)

SERGE further stated that without doubt KRIVITSKY was killed by the O.G.P.U. and yet KIBALTCHICHE had not revealed all that he knew of the O.G.P.U.'S activities in France. As proof of this, even after KIBALTCHICHE had become anti-Stalin and was a hunted man the O.G.P.U. did not find it necessary to change its Agents in France. They knew that KIBALTCHICHE was anti-Stalin and was always pro-Russian. SERGE further reflected that most of the Agents in the Popular Front in France escaped to the United States at the time of the German invasion. Chief among these communist agents is LUCIAN VOGEL. He also stated that ALEXANDRIA BARMINE as Russian Ambassador to Greece who is now in the United States is one who would be in a position to serve as an advisor on Russian questions. He also named BORIS NICOLAIVISKI, a Russian Menshevik in New York, as one who has an excellent knowledge of the activities and organization of the O.G.P.U. in the United States. (S-1)(X)(4)

This informant further reflects that Mr. SERGE on this date was still in the Dominican Republic and was said to be waiting for (S-1)(X)(4)

The files of the New York Office reflect in the letter from the Bureau dated February 28, 1942, entitled "DANIEL LAWRENCE - Espionage R" that one MAX FISHER, E. L. tivro dr. Ticheaga 47, Mexico, D.F. in writing to M. PATRUSHKA, 3349 Hull Avenue, Bronx, New York, stated that he spent the New Years' celebration in a friend's house where VICTOR SERGE and JULIAN GORKIN of the Spanish P.O.M. were (Note: probably P.O.U.M. - Partido Obrero Union Maxista). In a letter from the New York Field Office to the Bureau dated March 12, 1942, in instant case it is noted that Confidential informant [redacted] furnished information to the effect that a new International Trotskyite Center was being established in Mexico that would cause trouble in the United States eventually. He further reflected that the men who are instrumental in this new set up are VICTOR SERGE who at one time served a prison term in the U.S.R.R. for counter-revolutionary activities and JULIAN GORKIN who was tried by the Republic Spanish Government for starting a revolt against this Government during the Spanish Civil War and who was found guilty of treason. (X)

This informant also pointed out that there is MARCEAU PIVERT of France and GUSTAV REGLAR of Germany involved in this new organization. Informant advised that REGLAR was an engineer for the German Gestapo while confined to a Concentration Camp at Vernet, France. (X)

Informant further stated that these men along with many others are carrying out the anti-American, British and Russian propaganda throughout Mexico and Latin-America and that these men are cooperating with the Axis Powers and its Agents in these countries and with the Filangistas and the Sinarquistas. (X)

Informant further advised that the men mentioned above are connected with the powerful Trotsky machine in the United States which includes EUGENE LYONS, MAX EASTMAN, STONEY HOOK, BERTRAM D. WOLFE and GEORGE SOKOLSKY. (X)

All other references to VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE alias VICTOR SERGE contained in the files of the New York Field Office have to do with letters to and from the Bureau concerning publications written by this author.

In setting out in this report the contents of KIBALTCHICHE'S baggage reference will be made to the Item Number of the photographed document which Item Number appears also on the translated page. All of the translations will not be set out in full but will be summarized, and in view of the vast number of documents this report hereinafter is being placed into seven sub-divisions. These sub-divisions are as follows:

I. Biographical Data.....	Page 6
II. Correspondence to, from, and concerning KIBALTCHICHE.....	Page 9
III. VLADIMIR KIBALTCHICHE'S correspondence.....	Page 26
IV. Concerning publications and writings of VICTOR SERGE.....	Page 29
V. Newspaper clippings and articles in possession of KIBALTCHICHE.....	Page 33
VI. Miscellaneous.....	Page 36
VII. Summary of names of persons writing to, hearing from, or having connections with VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE.....	Page 37

It will be noted that the writer was unable to maintain a separate and distinct category for the documents in the luggage, but an attempt was made toward the end of making these sub-divisions mutually exclusive.

SECTION I -- BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

ITEM 1-220: This is a translation from the French appearing in the French publication "CRAPOUILLOT", the issue of January, 1937. The biographical data supplied herewith was printed in connection with the publishing of an article by VICTOR SERGE entitled "From Lenin to Stalin".

VICTOR SERGE (VICTOR LVOVITCH KIBALTCHICHE) was born at Brussels on December 30, 1890, of parents who are Russian revolutionary emigres. He was first an officer then a directory sympathizing with the "Will of the People" party. One of his relatives, a Communist of this party, was hanged in 1881 after the execution of Czar ALEXANDER II. His youth was spent in Belgium and in England. A younger brother died of want. At fifteen he was a photographer apprentice at Brussels. Later he was a photographer, cartoonist, clerk, printer, (after having learned the trade in "L'ANARCHIE'S" printing plant) journalist and translator. At fifteen he was a member of the young Socialist Guard of Ixelles and then a member of the Revolutionary Group of Brussels. He was a contributor to "TEMPS NOUVEAUX", "LIBERTAIRE" and GUERRE SOCIAL". He spent time in mining villages in Northern France. He was a writer for "L'ANARCHIE" in 1910 at the time of unlawful activity, was arrested and ordered to name the individuals involved, some of whom were shot, others died on the guillotine. He was indicted by virtue of the exact laws and condemned to five years of solitary confinement with hard labor. Being released in 1917 he became a printer at Barcelona, a member of the C.N.T. (Confederacion Nacional de Travail), contributor to "TIERRA Y LIBERTAD", and a participant in the first revolutionary attempt of July, 1917. He left for Russia, was arrested at Paris, was interned in a concentration camp under the Clemenceau ministry and was exchanged in January, 1917, as a Bolshevik hostage for an officer of the French Military Mission held in Russia. He arrived in Petrograd, became a member of the Russian Communist Party and a collaborator of ZINOVIEV on the executive committee of the Communist International during the Civil War. He was Fusilier of a Special Patrol, an associate of the General Staff of the Defense, Superintendent of the Files of the Secret Police under orders of KRASSIENE, in 1910, First Congress of the Third International. He was a writer for the Communist International. He spent a long time in Germany during the revolutionary preparation of 1923 and in Austria. He has been an Oppositionist since 1923. He returned to Moscow in 1925, was extradited and imprisoned in 1928, deported to Orenbourg in 1933 and banished from Russia in 1936, his Soviet nationality taken away without legal notification.

The dramatic account which "CRAPOUILLOT" publishes is not the work of a foreign traveler; VICTOR SERGE is Russian by birth and has just spent eighteen years in the country of the Soviets. He has been the friend or associate of the founders of the regime--LENIN, ZINOVIEV and TROTSKY. After having occupied important posts he experienced imprisonment and deportation when he believed the revolution "betrayed" and voices his indignation, but in the midst of world trials VICTOR SERGE has kept his faith in tact, and it is this fact which gives so much value to his indictment.

ITEM 2-248: Information for visa applications KIBALTCHICHE, VICTOR, pen name VICTOR SERGE, born at Brussels December 30, 1890, Writer (novelist and historian), expatriate, Russian origin and his children: KIBALTCHICHE, VLADIMIR, born June 15, 1920, at Petrograd, artist--painter. KIBALTCHICHE, JEANNIENE, born in Petrograd February 28, 1935.

ITEMS 2-348, 349: "In November, 1936, I obtained, through a military authorization, from Mr. Y. VON DEBOS (which was granted on January 7, 1936) a visa for six months' stay in France.

"The Minister of the Interior MARX DORMAY, having decided on June 23, 1937, to put aside the expulsion order against me issued in 1917, I obtained on February 25, 1937, new French visa for six months. The same visas were granted to my wife and my son.

"This authorization having expired in August, 1937, I requested a renewal and the Director of the Territorial and Foreign Police in a letter dated November 9, 1937, assured Mrs. MAGDALEINE PAZ that my situation was absolutely regular.

"In the second letter of December 17, 1937, the Director of Police again called attention to the fact that my situation was absolutely regular.

"At the Prefecture I remembered that instructions regarding the renewal of our identification cards had been given. The official in charge of these formalities told me: 'the letter from the Minister seems to indicate that your visit is not limited in any manner but the word renewal obliges me to renew your visa for six months.....'.

"At the end of March I addressed the Minister of the Interior, in sending to Mr. CAZEAUX new applications for renewal of permit to stay for a longer period of time; I felt I ought to point out my position as a political refugee banished from the U.S.S.R. and that I was ready to observe the rules laid down by the French in return for their hospitality.

ROUSSAKOV "These requests were also made on behalf of my wife, LIOUBOV KIBALTCHICHE and my son VLADIMIR, 17 years old."

ITEM 2-230: Membership card: Vigilance Committee of anti-Fascist intellectuals, Paris, 1937.

ITEM 2-300: Requests for several departure visas for KIBALTCHICHE, VICTOR, fifty years old, writer, and KIBALTCHICHE, VLADIMIR.

"American Express"
"GORKIN, (Clipper)"
"MAURI (Clipper)"

ITEM 2-102: November 2, 1940: Publication of "MY BOOK" in Mexico.

ITEM 2-99: November 30, 1940: "Recommendation of President CARDENAS for my visa".

At this time it is pointed out, and will be observed further below in this report, that VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE has been living for the past few years with LAURA SEJOURNE and in view of the frequent reference to this woman the following is set out:

ITEM 2-271: Personal information: SEJOURNE, LAURE, nee VALENTI, born at Aquila, Italy, October 24, 1911; French film actress (assistant); author of a film about Spain; collaborates with GEORGES NEVEAUX and JEAN LENOIRE; recommends: Modigliani, mine that of French friends. Evacuated from Paris, June 12, 1941. Address Marseilles, 123 Rue Horace Bertin.

SECTION II - CORRESPONDENCE TO, FROM AND CONCERNING
KIBALTCHICHE

ITEM 2-344: This is a letter to the Minister of Public Health from the Minister of the Interior of the French Republic dated February 4, 1937, advising the Minister of the Interior that the expulsion decree which had been issued against Mr. KIBALTCHICHE has just been revoked.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ITEM 2-350: Letter dated November 9, 1937, from the Department of the Interior to Magdaleine Paz in Paris advising the woman that the expulsion decree of May 29, 1916, issued against Mr. KIBALTCHICHE was revoked on January 23, 1937. The Minister states that Mr. KIBALTCHICHE, his wife, and his son VLADIMIR entered France last April with visas that were limited to six months; that inasmuch as these visas have expired it is probable that Mr. KIBALTCHICHE will now request their renewal.

ITEM 2-351: A letter to the same woman from the Department of Interior dated December 17, 1937, advising her that all necessary instructions were mailed to the Paris Police Headquarters so that the position of KIBALTCHICHE might be classified as soon as possible.

ITEM 1-763: A letter dated March 31, 1938, by ANDRE GIDE, to Mr. JEAN RIVIAN asking that gentleman to inform VICTOR SERGE that it will be impossible for him to be in Paris for the conference.

ITEM 2-352: A letter dated May 20, 1938, to Magdaleine Paz from the Department of Interior informing her that KIBALTCHICHE and his family have been permitted to reside in France for a period of six months.

ITEM 2-293: Letter dated January 5, 1940, unsigned and had "Mrs. LAURA SEJOURNE, General Delivery, Colbert, Marseilles", addressed to "Dear Friends: The Mexico Consulate was closed during the New Years holiday; I could not go there until yesterday in order to find out that my visa has not arrived.

"I will summarize my last letters; with or without American transit visa I have decided to leave quickly believing that I must not lose a day. I insisted that the same steps be taken for LAURA in order that she might obtain the same Mexican visa. We are very alarmed that nothing has been done in that regard although our friends have been very alert. In regard to the American transit visa I don't know where I am as I can't plan anything until I have the Mexican visa and I ignore the personnel and what they think of me, above all since the recent intrigues and the incident which I have already spoken to you about. Very truly yours - I shake your hand".

ITEM 2-294: An unsigned letter dated January 13, 1940, at Marseilles: "Dear Friends: I have already told you about my disappointment when I learned that the visa for LAURA was not obtained at the same time mine was." The remainder of this letter is a detailed discussion of the difficulties the writer did have with his visa since it was made out in his literary name, VICTOR SERGE, rather than his real name, VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE. He also points out that he is a Russian, but the visa is issued for one of Spanish nationality.

ITEM 2-363: Letter dated April 2, 1940, addressed to "My dear VICTOR:" and signed "LINDA". Contents of this letter are of no significance to the Bureau.

ITEM 2-379: A letter from ANDRE GIDE to SERGE concerning the health of the latter's wife and dated April 12, 1940.

ITEM 2-322: A letter written in English which reads as follows:

"102 Summit Avenue
"Syracuse, New York
"July 21, 1940

"My dear VICTOR SERGE:

"By this time I hope you have already received the money which I arranged to have cabled to you by DWIGHT MacDONALD ($50) and by the International Relief Association ($25). I arranged for these as soon as I received your letter. I also arranged for an affidavit for you to come to America. DWIGHT MacDONALD has been very helpful to me in all of this and I hope that we will be able to take care of you now that I know where you are. I wish that I were able to personally send both money and affidavit but unfortunately my own financial position is very difficult at present. Please rest assured, however, that as long as you need any assistance I shall do my utmost to provide it.

"Most of the publishers are very unwilling to print anything these days, especially on the term of your "VILLE CONQUIS". I have not able to arrange for its publication for that reason but I have not given up hope and the manuscript continues to be read by various publishers. Let us hope that it will be published soon."

"I have already written to MAX EASTMAN but have had no answer as yet."

"I cannot tell you how moved I was by your account in your letter and how much I sympathize with you in these desperate days. Please rest assured that as long as you need any assistance of any sort

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

I am ready to do what ever I can by all means. I am now trying to find some sort of work for you on a magazine or a newspaper as you suggested but these things move slowly. I shall see to it that you receive enough money to keep you going. Please be sure to let me know where you are at all times. I shall keep in touch with your American friends for you if you find it difficult to send off many letters; but by all means do keep me informed of your conditions and where you are.

"I hope that the knowledge that I am determined to send all possible aid to you will give you some more hope and strength in your difficult position.

"Fraternally yours - ELEANORA DEREN

"Please always write me: Care of: Dr. S. D. DEREN, 102 Summit Avenue, Syracuse, New York - this is my father's home and my most permanent address. Letters addressed there are always sure to reach me wherever I am.

"P.S. If you send me such articles or short stories as you have or may have an opportunity to write, I will try to sell them to some other magazines. This may be better than waiting for them to order something from you."

ITEM 2-259: Letter from VICTOR SERGE to a friend whose name is not mentioned but whose residence is evidently in the United States. The letter was written August 13, 1940, at Marseille where the writer was receiving his mail in care of M. E. E. SOSNOVSKI, 123 Rue Horace Bertin, Marseille. He is asking for financial assistance and also for aid in obtaining visas to the United States. He asks for contacts with and addresses of Jewish aid groups. He states that he has books and manuscripts which might bring in some income. Other persons mentioned are: VLADI, LAURETTE and MOLINS.

ITEM 2-257: A letter from VICTOR SERGE to MAX EASTMAN written in Marseille August 14, 1940. The letter is an appeal for help from EASTMAN and from other American friends, help both materially and for obtaining visas. The writer states that he is 49 years old, has a son 20 years old. He states that he was born in Belgium. He maintains that he is one of the last refugees of the Russian Revolution. He expresses a conviction that a better time is coming after the dark period we are in.

ITEM 2-258: A letter from VICTOR SERGE to ISABELITA and OLGA CENTER written at Marseilles August 14, 1940. SERGE expresses the difficulties he is having and asks for material aid and also aid in obtaining visas for Venezuela. He states that he expects to get aid from Jewish Associations in the United States. VIADY and MOLINS are reported to be in Narbonne. SERGE says that he would like a post as correspondent for some newspaper. In spite of the present situation he expresses an optimism for the future.

ITEM 2-236: A letter posted at Nice August 16, 1940, to Mr. VICTOR SERGE from Director E. S. HOLLEN of the American Express Company, Inc. "Dear Sir: On instructions from our New York Office we sent you on the date of July 29 a post office money order for 1,075 francs, for $25 in the current rate of 1940.

"Since we have not received a note of receipt from you, will you please return to us, signed, the enclosed receipt."

ITEMS 2-328, 340: Since all of the letters of these numbers deal with the same subject, the recovery of the sum of $25.00 which was evidently not received from the American Express Company, it was not felt necessary to translate more than this one example which gives the name and address of the two individuals concerned in this correspondence.

ITEM 2-254: Copy of a letter beginning "Dear Friend" and was written on August 22, 1940, in Marseilles where the writer's address was in care of Mrs. SOSNOSKI, 123 Rue Horace, Bertin, Marseilles. The writer is obviously SERGE and he asks for more details on the assassination in Mexico. He says that his situation is becoming worse daily.

ITEM 2-256: Unsigned letter beginning "Dear Friends" and written in Marseilles August 26, 1940—the author is most probably VICTOR SERGE—he speaks first of the death of L.D. (LEON TROTSKY) which he believes to be the work of the Agents of Soviet Russia. He asks for more details. He states that he received a letter from JULIAN GOMEZ GORKIN saying that he could obtain Mexican visas. The author prefers to go to the United States. He asks that his condolences be conveyed to NATHALIE IVANOVA. He speaks of KRIVITSKY.

ITEM 2-253: Copy of a letter from SERGE addressed to "My dear Friend" and written September 12, 1940, from his Marseilles address.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The writer stated that he had asked the addressee to arrange Mexican visas for him, his family, and LAURA SEJOURNE. These visas would be useful although he really intended to go to the United States. He asks definite information on L.T. (LEON TROTSKY) and asks that his sympathy be conveyed to NATHALIE IVANOVA. He also asks that the addressee and a certain PRIETO A. MODIGLIANI, refugee from Italy and anti-Fascist, to get to the United States. He mentions that JUAN has probably been interned.

ITEMS 2-251 and 2-252: A copy of a letter written at Marseilles dates September 13, 1940. Salutation is simply "Dear Friends:" He mentions receiving $5.00 from EASTMAN and another dispatch of money made by the addressee to FANLAC July 15. He mentions contacting Mr. FREY of the Emergency Rescue Committee who telegraphed Washington relative to him. He states that he also asked his friend JULIAN GOMEZ-GORKIN, care of MARTIN TEMPLE, Edison 40, Mexico City, to obtain Mexican visas for him. He asks for details on the death of LEON DAV. (TROTSKY). He mentions that he is expecting news from Silone and also a dispatch of $25 via the American Express, already announced by the addressee.

ITEM 2-250: An unsigned letter dated September 20, 1940. Name of the addressee is not given. The first paragraph speaks of money received through the American Express. The second speaks of a Jewish assistance committee to which a certain EASTMAN had written about him (the committee had ceased to function because of lack of funds). The third speaks of the steps taken for obtaining visas, of a certain DOUBINSKY who might give valuable assistance and of a more or less sure way of leaving and crossing Spain. The fourth paragraph speaks of the difficulties of getting the necessities of life, even with money; of the moral degradation of certain groups; of the catastrophe in Mexico which it is hoped would unite the comrades. The final paragraph mentioned had no information relative to the visas having been received by Mr. FREY and speaks of the writer's work on two books.

ITEMS 2-185-186: Letter to SERGE from ANDRE GIDE dated September 24, 1940. The writer says that he is staying where he is to see what happens but that if his voice is no longer to be heard he had just as soon have someone get a visa for him.

ITEM 2-158: A note dated September, 1940, to SERGE from his wife who is in a clinic.

ITEM 2-263: Letter by VICTOR SERGE to "My dear Friend": written in Marseilles September 26, 1940. First he asks the addressee to obtain American visas as soon as possible. He complains that due to his late arrival in Marseilles and to the fact that he is the leader of no group he has been unable to receive the assistance that others have received. He speaks of his "WORD PORTRAIT" being published and of the death of "Old Man" (probably TROTSKY). He speaks of aid received from friends in New York. He states that he is almost through with two books and has them ready for publication. He again mentions the case of MODIGLINI whom the addressee is to aid through Prieto. The final paragraph speaks for the future, of a long range intellectual endeavor. He approves the work of the association of Authors and Editors.

ITEM 2-262: Letter from VICTOR SERGE addressed to "Dear Friends" and written in Marseilles September 27, 1940. He states that Mr. FREY received a telegram from the Emergency Rescue Committee which was not clear but indicated that a decisive period had been reached in the request for visas. He writes that a certain ELSA is also trying to arrange for visas. He mentions that it might be well for Mr. ALFRED BINGHAM to write his brother to get him to use his influence. He speaks of a Mr. BOHN who has lists of people to aid and on whose list the writer has not been able to have his name included. He adds that he is receiving a small amount of financial aid from the Emergency Rescue Committee. A friend, JULIAN, in Mexico is reported to have agreed to have obtained Mexican visas. He mentions that ANDRE BRETON is another person who deserved to be helped by the E.R.C.

ITEMS 2-260, 261: Two copies of a letter from VICTOR SERGE to MARC written in Marseilles September 30, 1940. He mentions the Italian, MODIGLIANI, who is also trying to get to the United States.

ITEMS 2-274, 275: A letter dated October 7, 1940, addressed to "Dear Friends",..... "I imagine that by now you realize what great obstacles I am up against since through certain information which we now have I know that the Stalinist work is being done in the United States on a large scale by a goodly number of journalists, and Stalinist intellectuals who have arrived there. They even have a certain amount of support in the Administration and without doubt among certain aliens of the Bourgeoise. Their action is and will be camouflaged; they will have to suspicion certain hopes in regard to the attitude of the U.S.S.R. in the coming developments of the war. They would do anything if they could get all their personnel installed in the United States. They will be able during a certain period of time at least, to close the door to me..... I will wait here until the situation becomes more difficult and may even turn out to be tragic; therefore, I demand and advise you to take action through Mexico in order to hasten the solution..... ELSA ought to be in Lisbon by now or at least within fifteen minutes. From there she will write to MAX EASTMAN. Steps have been taken for her by the Menshiniks, but she does not expect a favorable result as she is inclined to take a direct view of things knowing the egoism of the group of men who have occupied themselves with assisting her....."

"The difficulty of departing is very great. I must leave with my son as soon as possible for a number of reasons which you may guess; the unfortunate thing is that he does not have a passport; neither the Mexicans or the Americans will even issue him a transit visa. My daughter may be brought over a little later.

"A great deal is being done to save the leaders of the old parties, but the actions of the left or the extreme left and in particular the militant workers and the intellectuals are unimportant or scattered. It is among them that we find our best friends....I think that we should rapidly create an aid organization which will be in charge of these aliens and will renew their relations with the various American responsibilities in order to see that the unions will finance the immigration of these militant workers..... Wouldn't it be possible to obtain through the Spanish aid commodities in Mexican funds; from the American aid commodities which are intended for a number of militants and intellectuals now taking refuge here? ELEANORA DER, perhaps will receive a manu script in the hope that she will be able to publish it in a magazine when conditions become normal. This is not my manuscript..... I have not even read it. The author seems to be a young man, intelligent, that is all that I am able to say....."

ITEM 2-276: Copy of a letter dated October 8, 1940, addressed to "Dear Friends". SERGE speaks generally of the serious difficulties he is having and concerning visas for Mexico and his attempt to obtain a transit visa for New York. He further states that a sympathetic youth will probably send an essay one of these days to "Our Friends" in New York. He states that the youth is sympathetic and not stupid.

ITEM 2-227: Letter dated October 18, 1940, to "Dear Friends" by VICTOR SERGE: "..... at present despite some clouds on the horizon our position is becoming a little bit better and it seems that within a few days we will have a roof over our heads and a fairly decent place to stay. I have received $50 which was cabled by Messrs. J. P. Markham & Company of New York day before yesterday."

The writer then speaks generally about his attempts to get a passage for Mrs. SEJOURNE to the United States and of his confidence in her ability as an actress to gain a living on this side of the ocean. Mrs. SEJOURNE will ask JEAN RENOIR, a renowned film producer who is coming to America, to take the necessary action which will have to be done through the Emergency Rescue Committee and to get in touch with NANCY." SERGE, in the letter addressed October 21, 1940, to "Dear Friends" points out the qualifications of Mrs. SEJOURNE in order that the necessary steps to be taken for her to obtain a visa from the State Department.

"SEJOURNE, LAURE, nee VALENTINI, born at Aquilla, Italy, October 24, 1911, French film actress assistant, author of a film about Spain, collaborates with GEORGES NEVEAUX and JEAN RENOIR. Recommendations: MODIGLIANI, ANDRE, BRETON, MINE. I have learned that BRETON is having difficulties at Washington about visas but that Mexico has invited him there to give lectures. He is here; we see him often." Also on this photo is a letter dated October 21, 1940, by VICTOR SERGE to MORGAN & COMPANY at Chatel Guyon acknowledging the receipt of 2,150 francs which were sent to him in payment of the sum of $50.00 wired from New York.

ITEM 2-272: Letter dated October 21, 1940, advising a "Dear Friend" that the person can get in touch with VICTOR SERGE through the Emergency Rescue Committee, 122 East 42nd Street, New York City, whose representative in France is in charge of his affairs. He also states that he has other friends in New York.

ITEM 2-318, 319: Letter addressed to VICTOR SERGE, Marseilles, France, from Mrs. M. F. ETCHEFEHERE, Calle Tucuman, 2 do. Piso B., Buenos Aires dated October 22, (probably 1940). In this letter Mrs. ETCHEFEHERE speaks of the conditions under which the articles of subject may be printed in newspapers. She states that she was the manager of a periodical which comes out every week, and that this office is ready to take an article from SERGE. He may choose his own subject, but the price of each article will be only 250 francs. She further states that he will have to address them to her as if they were personal letters and that they must be sent in her mail. "..... regarding the business of obtaining a visa for entering Argentina, it is problematical. The doors here are becoming more and more closed against immigrants and especially against those whose names are well known as in your case..... Don't you think it would perhaps be easier to get a visa for North America.....

"Send me an article immediately. Choose your subject in such a way that you will not have difficulties with the censor."

ITEM 2-278: A letter dated November 6, 1940, headed LAURA SEJOURNE in care of Mr. BENEDITE, 63 Avenue Jean Lombarde, La Pomerai, Marseilles. In spite of the heading of this letter it is apparent that it was written by VICTOR SERGE in which letter to "Dear Friends" he advises them to take "our" new address and he further states that in spite of the novel made up of five parts on which he is spending a great deal of time, he has already lost so many manuscripts in Russia that he has a certain hesitation in working "here" under almost identical circumstances.

ITEM 2-280: Headed in the same way as the above letter and dated November 11, 1940, addressed to "Dear Friends". He acknowledges receipt of telegrams and for the remittances which have reached him and states further that some Russian friends in Mr. JOHN'S Club in New York have announced that there is a sum of 1,000 francs and that his part of that sum has already been sent to him. He tells these friends also to note his new address.

ITEM 2-320,321: A letter addressed to Mrs. LAURA SEJOURNE from NANCY MacDONALD, 117 East 10th Street, New York City, and postmarked at New York on November 25, 1940. "Dear Friends..... I sent you off immediately a cable with some money saying that we had received it and that we are still at work here in your behalf. I am sorry you have not received our letters..... Incidentally, the money was sent to LAURA. Concerning your visa. It is impossible to get one here for you but if we obtain one from JULIAN it will be possible for you to get a transit visa here and stay here. We also have the hopes of getting you a visa to Ecuador and should hear some about this. This too would permit you to get a transit visa here and stay here. We haven't heard from JULIAN but lately have heard that he is still working on the visa for you. However, yesterday we sent a telegram through to the authorities asking why we had had no news (politely). We hope for a reply soon. I don't understand what the Emergency Rescue Committee are up to. I am going to get in touch with them tomorrow. They are either lying or else duplicating their work. I will also take up with them the matter of LAURA and will undertake to get affidavits for her myself if they have not done so already. LAURA will have to come in on a quota number but I understand that the French quota is not full so that should not be too difficult. RENOIR'S help will be of value. I will get in touch with him. Yes, we know his work—it is very fine..... No, nothing new on F.J. and we did not hear anything from MANGAN but he rather avoided us for reasons. He is gone now and we did not see him but friends did. With enormous greetings to you all from the MacDONALDS and other friends. (signed) NANCY."

ITEM 2-325: A letter addressed to MME. LAURA SEJOURNE, Marseilles, France, from NANCY MacDONALD, 117 East 10th Street, New York, New York, dated December 6, 1940. "Dear Friends: At last there is really good news. VICTOR has been granted a visa by the Mexican Government..... It is not yet clear as to whether VLADIMIR is also included but we are working on his visa now. We are also applying for an American visa for Mlle. SEJOURNE, and we will send her the necessary papers in a few days. By the way, the Emergency Rescue Committee here has no record of either Mlle. SEJOURNE or RENOIR. M. FREY must be misinformed about that. We have made inquiries at the Museum of Modern Art but they know nothing of M. RENOIR or whether he will arrive over here.

"Last week I cabled VICTOR to go to the American Lloyd, Inc. and to consult them about making the trip to Lisbon. We have arranged with our officer over here to take care of the entire trip. They have had much experience in getting the proper tickets, complying with formalities, etc. New friends of ours have recommended them to me highly."

She further states that VICTOR should not wait for VIADIMIR and Mlle. SEJOURNE but that he should leave as soon as possible in view of the fact that boat service across the Atlantic is likely to be interrupted if not entirely stopped at any time.

"...Now that VICTOR has a Mexican visa obtained through G. together with certain friends here—Mr. ~~FINERTY~~, the lawyer here who has been kind enough to do what he can for us with the Washington authorities, thinks it will be possible to obtain for him at least a transit visa in the United States. In that case we shall at least be able to shake hands with VICTOR and to make his acquaintance which I need not tell you would give us the deepest happiness."

".....there has been no news whatever about ~~JACKSON~~ for many weeks now. We don't even know whether he has given any testimony or when he will be brought into court if at all. We are very indignant about the treatment you have received from M. ~~BOHN~~ and we are making protests to the proper quarters about it.My husband sends you his warmest regards and the same to VICTOR.
(Signed) NANCY MacDONALD."

ITEM 2-285: Letter dated December 8, 1940, in which the writer discussed the possibility of obtaining a visa from Cuba and plan to go there via Portugal. With a Cuban visa he would be granted a transit visa by Portugal and also a permit to leave France.

ITEM 2-284: Copy of a letter dated December 9, 1940, to "Dear MARC and JULIAN: The idea of making the voyage with GERMAINE and her daughter makes me smile..... A telegram of November 28 from my friends in New York told me that President CARDENAS has recommended your immigration visa.... visit the Mexican Consulate.....I did not go to the Consulate until yesterday, December 7, and they had not received any news." This copy of a letter along with other copies of letters which have no signature were obviously written by SERGE.

ITEMS 2-315,314,316,317: Letters dated December 13, 1940, from the Bernard Publishing Company to VICTOR SERGE regarding the publication of a book by the latter and the condition of the publishing trade in France.

ITEM 2-288: Copy of a letter dated December 19, 1940, to "Dear Friends", stating that the writer went to the Mexican Consulate and that nothing had been received there. It further reflected that "your telegrams show what a fight you are putting up over there... in reality the entire world is against us, but we should not be surprised."

ITEM 2-289: Letter dated December 21, 1940, at Marseilles, "Dear Friends:..... If it should be impossible to obtain a transit visa for New York I shall be obliged to go to Mexico as quickly as possible from where it will perhaps be possible to go to the United States. That is what I am asking you to arrange for me... I have received your cable in the following form: 'Mexican Government sends Marseilles Consulate visas by cable 61787 November 12 Stop'. The date is certainly an error as it should read December in referring to your former telegram."

ITEM 2-291: Letter dated December 23, 1940, addressed to "Dear JULIAN: We have received the translation of the book. I am happy about our similarity of views as they will facilitate a great many things and will make us stronger." The remainder of this letter contains a detailed recital of difficulties in getting the desired visa and personal data in regard to LAURA SEJOURNE for the consulate.

ITEM 2-281: Copy of a letter dated November 24, 1940. The writer, who is most likely SERGE, asks his "Dear Friends" if the "PARTIZAN REVIEW" still appears and that if it does he would like to get the last two numbers.

ITEM 1-756: Copy of a letter dated December 24, 1940, which is addressed to "Dear Friends" and is unsigned: "At the moment we have had no letters from you for a long time. I hope you have the Mexican visas by now and that you are working on the American transit visa. I hope that you have visited Mr. BINGHAM and that you have found him helpful. His brother wrote him on the sixth of September and says he never had a report concerning his note. DWIGHT has written a Clipper registered letter yesterday to BINGHAM which he should have when you receive this. I hope LAURA received a registered letter containing affidavits which was sent off on December 16. The general opinion is that she should write for a French quota number if she still wants to get an American visa. DWIGHT and I hope to go to Washington on Thursday (26th) to try to get a transit visa for you and to make a last plea for a faster visa. I cannot write you of all the negotiations that have taken place, of the telegrams and the letters and the telephone calls that have been written and made..... DWIGHT has just completed an eighty page opus that he has been working on since August. I think he feels relieved. Now he is waiting for comments and arguments which I believe will be quite lively. Incidentally we never received that story that you sent from England by was going to send by S.M..... DWIGHT asks me to say that he and his friends are looking forward accordingly to meeting you here before long. There is so much to discuss, and we hope you will have the manuscript of a new novel with you.

"With our best Christmas Greetings to you and to VLADIMIR and JEANNIENE and Mme. SEJOURNE." (It is observed that this letter is without signature but is apparently meant for VICTOR SERGE and is from NANCY MacDONALD in New York.

ITEM 1-757: A letter dated January 21, 1941, from NANCY MacDONALD, 117 East 10th Street, New York City, "Dear Friends..... My last letter stated that LAURA'S visa had been granted sometime ago but the final word on it is not yet received. But your friends in Mexico hoped that it would reach LAURA in time for her to leave with you all. Hers was not granted at the same time as the three others as the three were given at the request of a friend of ours up here since we did not know about LAURA..... Your passage has already been paid for from Lisbon to New York, and the rest will be paid as soon as we hear that the money is needed..... We have not heard from RENOIR although we see by the papers that he is here. I did go to the Emergency Rescue Committee again, and they had absolutely no information about LAURA..... With warmest greetings to you all... NANCY."

ITEM 1-759: Letter dated January 16, 1941, from NANCY MacDONALD to "Dear Friends": In this letter NANCY reveals the difficulties which had been encountered in obtaining visas for VICTOR and his children. She stated that she thought what they had been doing through a friend of MAX EASTMAN in behalf of VICTOR was mainly supplementing what JULIAN was doing for them in Mexico. However, it seems that the matters were entirely distinct. She states again that his and his children's passages have been paid from the Lisbon Port to New York on the American Export Lines and that LAURA is to be taken care of by one means or another. "..... we have worked via the Amerloyd because they were helping us on the Cuban idea. The I.R.A. has employed their services quite frequently and others have been assisted by them." NANCY also speaks of money sent to the addressee on December 27, either via J. P. MORGAN or the American Express. She states that they went to Washington on his behalf; that MICHAEL has been sick; and that DWIGHT is always busy writing.

ITEM 2-296: A cablegram addressed to NANCY MacDONALD send by LAURE SEJOURNE in Marseilles, France: "MEXICAN VISA RECEIVED AND NOTIFIED AMERICAN EXPORT PREPARATIONS IN COURSE FOR LAURA NEED MORAL AFFIDAVIT WHICH MAY BE CABLED BY SAME PERSONNEL. GREETINGS. SEJOURNE."

Under the same item there is a short note dated January 16, 1941, to "Dear Friends" and is unsigned (this must be a copy of a letter written by SERGE: "You must at least know by me JACQUES MESNIL, son of my oldest friends..... He died in a convent in middle France where he took refuge when fleeing Paris.

ITEM 1-762: Letter from the American Export Lines, Marseilles, dated January 24, 1941, addressed to the Portuguese Consul at Marseilles in which Export Lines advise that the tickets from Lisbon to New York from VICTOR and VLADIMIR KIBALTCHICHE have been paid for in full. Letter states that they are in touch with these people and are now trying to reserve places for them on one of their boats. They further request that a transit visa be granted them by Portugal.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ITEM 2-298: Copy of a letter dated January 29, 1941, in which the writer tells his "Dear Friends" that he has a mind to go directly from Lisbon to Mexico and that the passage money would have to be transferred to the line which is granting passage to Mexico. He further stated that by going directly to Mexico he would have very little change of getting a Spanish visa for Spain and Mexico and no diplomatic connections. He further states that at present everything is held up because of the impossibility of obtaining from the American Consulate anything more than a formal report equivalent to a refusal.

Under the same Item Number is an unsigned letter dated January 30, 1941, which is summarized as follows: The personnel of the Consulate seems to be predisposed against him because he is not yet in possession of a special visa. He says he is also trying to get away to get from Marseilles to Lisbon without troubling his friends. He says that BRETON has finally received his American visa and he further states that he is at present reading Sidney Hook's book.

ITEM 1-760: Letter from NANCY MacDONAID addressed to "Dear Friends" which from its contents reflects that it was written after February 2, 1941. She states in this regard that they are all disgusted and puzzled by the whole matter, and that they are sending a strong letter to the Department which, if there are any confusions in their ties, should clear them up. "and I fear they are confused for the head of the Department wrote us one thing and the sub-head wrote us the exact opposite. The former said that they themselves had started the investigation--the latter said that Marseilles had requested it and it was on the strength of the latter statement that we sent the cable suggesting that you try to go by some other route, but if the former is correct and we believe that it must be since you also state that the whole thing depends on Washington then we believe that there should be a successful termination to the matter as soon as the Marseilles report arrives. A friend in Washington will keep me advised as to when the report arrives. (signed) NANCY."

ITEM 1-756. A letter from NANCY MacDONAID to Mme. LAURA SEJOURNE dated February 11, 1941, and postmarked New York City February 18, 1941. "Dear Friends..... We do not understand the most recent developments that have occurred but with the help of a friend in Washington we hope to be able to ascertain what is happening. As far as we can make out now the whole question of the transit visas has been revised again."

ITEM 2-311: Cablegram from LAURA SEJOURNE, Marseilles, France, to NANCY MacDONALD: "CONSULATE CABLING STATE DEPARTMENT CONCERNING OUR TRANSIT VISAS. URGE IF POSSIBLE. GREETINGS. SEJOURNE."
 ... Another cablegram dated February 11, 1941, reading as follows:
 "NANCY MacDONALD, 117 East 10 Street, New York: AMERICAN CONSUL AWAITING DECISION FROM DEPARTMENT ON VISA. WITHOUT AMERICAN VISA TRANSIT OF SPAIN ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE. WILL TRY ANOTHER WAY. NECESSARY TO TRANSFER FUNDS TO LINE ASSURING TRIP DIRECT TO MEXICO AND TO ADVISE US. GREETINGS. SEJOURNE."

Cablegram reading as follows and dated February 13, 1941, to NANCY MacDONALD: "WITHOUT AMERICAN TRANSIT DEPARTURE VERY DIFFICULT. SPAIN REFUSES TRANSIT FOR MEXICO. MOROCCO GRANTS TRANSIT LISBON DEMANDS PAID VOYAGE TO MEXICO. CABLE ADDRESS CARE OF KICH HOTEL, ROME, MARSEILLES."

ITEM 2-312: Cablegram dated February 28, 1941, to NANCY MacDONALD: "PLEASE OBTAIN EMERGENCY TRANSIT SAN DOMINGO THROUGH DOMINICAN SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATION. WOULD MAKE DEPARTURE POSSIBLE SOON. MEXICAN VISA FOR LAURA NOT ARRIVED. REGARDS. SEJOURNE."

Cablegram dated February 21, 1941, to NANCY MacDONALD: "MARTINIQUE DEMANDS TRANSIT SAN DOMINGO. IMPOSSIBLE TO OBTAIN IT HERE. POSSIBLE TO OBTAIN IT BY TELEGRAM NEW YORK THROUGH DOMINICAN SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATION. INTERVENE. CABLE REPLY. REGARDS. LAURA."

ITEM 2-313: Cablegram dated March 13, 1941, to NANCY MacDONALD: "HOPELESS DIFFICULTIES. MARTINIQUE DEMANDS DOMINICAN AND CUBAN TRANSIT VISAS. ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO OBTAIN HERE. WE HAVE CABLED CUIDAD TRUJILLO. ARE ASKING CUBA. SUPPORT IF YOU CAN. REGARDS. SEJOURNE."

Cablegram dated March 5, 1941, to JULIAN GOMEZ-GORKIN: "WE ARE DISTURBED. LAURA SEJOURNE'S VISAS NOT YET ARRIVED. PLEASE INVESTIGATE. URGENT. ADDRESS SERGE HOTEL ROHR, MARSEILLES, REGARDS."

ITEM 2-302: Letter dated February 13, 1941, and unsigned directed to "Dear Friends" and is undoubtedly from SERGE. He states among other things that KRIV.'S death is affecting him a great deal because he has known him for so many years. The writer says he is hoping to leave with his son. JEANNIENE will come later with LAURA.

ITEM 1-766: A letter written from Lyon February 25, 1941, and addressed to VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE, the return address on the envelope being VAUTHIER, Lycee du Parc, Lyon, wherein the writer tells of his wife's illness and says that the child JEANNIENE is very happy now that she is going to school and that it would be wrong for his friend to think of taking her over seas where doubtless soon there will be just as much danger and disturbance as there is in Europe.

ITEM 2-305: Copy of a letter apparently written by SERGE dated March 25, 1941, in which he says that he has waged the battle for the visas for eight months now and cites several cases of people who might have helped him but who seemed to have done just the opposite. He mentions a LEO B. to whom he wrote in Toulouse asking for advice and information but from whom he received no reply. He found out after his departure from New York that he was the representative for the I.R.A. He mentions the American visa situation again. He names others in the same fix: GRILLEVICZ, TALELEIM, and BRANDL. He states that there is nothing definite from Lisbon for Laura and that the Emergency Rescue Committee has never answered and he has discussed it with her.

ITEM 2-308: Copy of a letter dated March 10, 1941, apparently from SERGE in which he says he has no illusions about the officials of the State Department among whom there are probably a goodly number of Reactionaries and some friends of the U.S.G.R. who are discreet but do their duty. He agrees that a Russian political refugee has no particular right for an entry visa to the United States. He says he is very surprised by the exclusive treatment he has received and he does not see how they can justify it knowing how many people are being admitted. He says that in his records in Washington they must have found something terrific which had been prepared for the occasion as they did in Brussels and in Paris. He is held there simply because of this visa and will soon be turned over to the enemy just at a time when the United States claims to be working in favor of the political refugees of Europe. He thinks that the treatment he is receiving from the State Department is simply scandalous. He says he is not the only one in the same situation. He is enclosing a copy of his letter of March 6. He hopes that they will soon have a decision from Washington or from Ciudad Trujillo.

ITEM 2-310, 309: Copy of the letter dated March 13, 1941, at Marseilles to JULIAN GOMEZ in Mexico City. He says that departure for the United States is easy but for Mexico is next to impossible.

Morocco has refused him a transit visa, and he is wondering if JULIAN could do something to help hurry things along.

ITEM 2-255: Letter written to ISABELITA on August 21, 1941, from the writer's address in care of Mrs. SOSNOSKI, 123 Rue Horace Bertin, Marseilles. He mentions a person named MOLINS and again regrets the death of L.D. He mentions that he had asked her to obtain Mexican visas for VLADIMIR, his sister, and himself which would be useful to them even in going to the United States. He reports having put in a final application in Marseilles and also has asked for help from some friends whose names are not mentioned. The final sentence is: "If we do not find a great deal of solidity in Americaⁱⁿ this world crisis many of us are lost—and we shall no longer be alive when there is need of us."

SECTION III - VLADIMIR KIBALTCHICHE'S CORRESPONDENCE

ITEMS 1-21 through 1-24: These are of a letter written probably to VLADIMIR by ISABELITA and dated at Caracas, June 27, 1938. They are entirely personal and are in very faulty French greatly influenced by the Spanish and relate details of her daily life. She speaks of the possibility of their going to New York together.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ITEMS 1-12, 13: A letter from Isabelita to Vladimir dated November 20, 1938, from Caracas. The writer was pleased to receive the letters from Vladimir. On November 19 she received a letter from HENRI BRUCHET; she stated that after he had stopped to see her he left for Spain where he stayed for ten days. After August 18, 1938, he was imprisoned at the Sant in Paris for protesting against the State. He hopes to be released around the first of December. He saw EMILIO while in Paris. ISABELITA requests VLADIMIR to check this last statement with EMILIO. ISABELITA professes her love for VLADIMIR. She further wants to help BRUCHET and requests information for sending money to him.

ITEMS 1-14, 15: A letter to VLADIMIR written by ISABELITA in Caracas November 26, 1938; In the letter she tells how her father accidentally shot himself and later died from the wounds. The accompanying events are recorded by her. She speaks of the exorbitant amount demanded by the doctor who attended her father and stated that this idea taken by the Bourgeoise class would make anyone a Communist.

ITEM 1-11: This item is a personal letter dated April 30, 1939, from ISABELITA in Caracas to "VLADI". ISABELITA states that she has to work long hours as she is the Secretary to the Minister. She lives with one "MURITA" and enjoys the company of one "ISSAIAS MEDINA" who, though he speaks and thinks absolutely differently from ISABELITA, is a fine young man who has done much to improve the working conditions of the working classes. She is thinking of going to Paris around the end of July or the first of August. Her mother and MURITA will probably accompany her.

ITEMS 1-25, 26: A letter dated May 24, 1939, at Caracas from ISABELITA to VLADI. Her mother and MURITA are going to Paris. They are sailing on the Carribia on June 11 and will arrive there on June 23. She wishes that VLADIMIR would agree with EMILIO and meet her mother and MURITA at Cherbourg when the boat docks. BRUCHET went to Paris again.

ITEMS 1-47, 48: A letter from MAURICE to VLADI written in Oran January 24, 1941. The writer expresses his boredom and states that the business affairs are not going as well as might be wished. Names mentioned in the letter are: VICTOR, ANDRE, JACQUELINE, DENIS (?), DINA, FRANCINE (?), ISABELITO, IGNACIO, JUAN, JUAN'S wife (the latter two were interned in a camp near Toulouse), WILL (?); All of these persons were mentioned in a casual letter of a friendly nature.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ITEM 1-31,32: Letter written in Oran on February 28, 1941, addressed to VLADI by a man whose name is possibly MAURICE. This letter is personal in nature and discusses the unhappy turn which an amorous affair between VLADI and a certain DINA has taken.

ITEMS 2-361, 362: This is a postcard from L. ROUSSAKOV dated May 19, 1941, at the Hospital De La Maison Blanche, Neuilly, Seine et Oise addressed to VLADI ROUSSAKOV, 123 Rue Horace, Bertin, Marseilles. (It will be here observed that the card apparently is from VLADIMIR'S mother who is ailing, as has been noted before, and is in a hospital. It may also be observed that the mother whose maiden name was ROUSSAKOV is living under that name and addressing her son under this name which might give indications of their status in France.)

ITEMS 1-28,29,30: A personal letter dated August 6, 1941, sent from New York to VLADI SERGE in care of EUGENIO GRANDELL to Avenida Independencia, Ciudad, Trujillo, Dominican Republic, from ISABELITO MAURI (?), 130 West 57th Street, New York City. "I went to the Cuban Consulate to find out what was being done about the visa for you both and they told me that $500 was needed for the transit visa. However, if you both agree to remain in the airport or in the plane during the time that the plane is passing through Cuba a visa is not necessary. The airline only demands a visa for Mexico. I am thinking of leaving on the tenth of this month. I have everything all arranged, visa, etc. MURITA is in Caracas but is leaving this month for Mexico. I believe that she will arrive at the same time that I will. I am sure that you will like her.

"The 'Molins' affair is going rather badly—first, he has a visa which is valid for Venezuela; second, I have requested a permit from the French Consulate in Washington so that he could embark at Casa Blanca. They definitely promised it to me but he is to pass through Portugal and they won't let him. There are no direct boats now.

"Today I bought clothes for V.S. It is worthwhile living when there are men like V.S." On the reverse side of a photograph is written: "My latest photograph in Caracas, 515 West 143 Street, Apartment 42.

ITEMS 1-37,38: A letter to VLADI written in Oran by a certain MAURICE. The letter is personal and especially warns VLADI and his father to be on their guard. The writer also mentions that he is concerned over the future of a friend (HENRIQUE).

SECTION IV - CONCERNING PUBLICATIONS AND WRITINGS OF VICTOR SERGE (KIBALTCHICHE)

ITEM 1-641: This is an article entitled "The Memory of VLADIMIR ILLITCH" in which VICTOR SERGE extols the memory of Lenin, praises his far sightedness and lauds his relentless activity on behalf of the party. SERGE states that if Lenin had lived conditions in the Soviet would probably be better. His attitude may be summed up in the following: "On the whole his (Lenin's) work remains, nevertheless, as a new starting point in history, a majestic example of lack of self interest and devotion to the working class, a triumphant application of Marxist thought to the struggle of the classes." This item was written in 1937 and published in "LABATALIA".

ITEMS 1-648, 649, 650, and 659: In this article written on January 2, 1937, VICTOR SERGE discusses various types of power. He states that in a period of social crisis there are two main types of power: A very strong power for defending the privileges of the rich classes against the workers or a very strong power for the support of the masses. The former tends to be detrimental to the farmers and the workers and to destroy revolutionary organizations; the latter tends to strengthen the energy of the masses.

ITEMS 1-651, 652, 653, and 658: The title of the article is "Everything Repeats Itself". "Nineteen years apart, in two such different countries as Russia and Spain, the same causes produce the same effects. During July and August of 1937 in Russia the parties that were interested in or directed by Bourgeoise democracy had no answer for the Bolsheviks whose watchwords were in accordance with relativity; peace among the people without emancipations or contributions, workers' control of production, land for the farmers, power for the Workers' Council. Not having an answer they therefore used their most perfidious weapon—slander, and it is slander which they are now using against us, Comrades of the P.O.U.M. (Workers Party for Marxists Unification) and the C.N.T. (Confederacion Nationale de Travail).

"After the events of July, 1917, Lenin and Zenoviev had to hide in a small cottage on the coast of Finland. Trotsky let himself be arrested in order to answer to the action of the party (who understand that the two leaders of the revolutionary ought not to put themselves in danger at the same time), then slander entered the picture. They were called Agents who sold out to Germany. Every person in the world denounced the Bolsheviks and in the Siberian Revolution today the P.O.U.M. finds itself in the same position in which the Bolsheviks were in 1917.

"However, we shall defend the interests of the Soviet Workers and those of the Workers of Spain. We shall also struggle for socialism throughout the world including the U.S.S.R." This article is signed, VICTOR SERGE, dated, December 29, 1938.

ITEMS 1-654, 655, 656, and 657: These documents form an article entitled "Against Slander"; it was written by VICTOR SERGE and dated January 1, 1937. In it SERGE tells the comrades of the P.O.U.M. and the C.N.T. that they must combat slander; that facts, dates, ideas, and history are the most effective methods for dealing with slander.

ITEMS 1-710, 709, 708, 707, 706: This is an article by VICTOR SERGE entitled "Power and Limitations of Marxism", published in "THE MASSES—A SOCIALIST REVIEW", Number Three, March, 1939, Paris. SERGE states that Russia is far from a true Marxist State. The fear of the masses is characteristic of nearly the entire Russian Revolution development. The reason to be drawn from this is that socialism is essentially libertarian. It is clear in Russia today that without freedom of thought, speech, criticism, and initiative socialized production cannot help but undergo one crisis after another. Liberty is as necessary to Marxism and socialism as oxygen is to living beings. In Russia the dictatorship of the proletariat has become the dictatorship of officials and police over the proletariat; the working class is much worse off than it was under the old government; agriculture has been ruined by forced collectivization. Marxism has been destroyed by an anti-socialist Government but SERGE feels that a new working class will re-constitute itself in Russia on a considerably enlarged industrial basis.

The following are a list of title pages as appear in the books found in the luggage of SERGE:

ITEM 2-1: Author VICTOR SERGE; title "The Men in Prison", published by Les Editions Rieder - Paris - MCMXXX.

ITEM 1-347, 352: Letters to MAURICE WULLENS on anti-Semitism and some other matters.

ITEM 1-614, 616: Letter to the Executive Committee of the P.O.U.M., January 18, 1937, containing advice on the distribution of socialistic propaganda among Soviet sailors in Spanish ports, on Spanish ships, etc.

ITEM 1-367, 372: Author VICTOR SERGE; title "Testimony of the Revolution" - an addition to the above book entitled "The Crisis of the Stalin Regime".

ITEM 1-713, 714: Letter to the New International, New York, concerning an article attributed to SERGE but which he says he did not write - August, 1939.

ITEM 1-314, 317: A letter to BERGE from JOSEPH KRONAUER, Paris, October 28, 1936, dealing with Communist and Socialist affairs in Europe.

ITEM 1-301: Three slips of paper, each with the heading G.P.U.; apparently notes on missing men.

ITEM 1-322: A criticism of Stalin's regime.

ITEM 1-302, 313: Detailed notes on history and appearances of various individuals; information which appears to have been obtained from the G.P.U. present in Barcelona. The reports are signed G.

ITEM 1-305: This mentions a former G.P.U. Agent named NINA who traveled in North and South America, November, 1937.

SECTION V - NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS AND ARTICLES IN POSSESSION OF KIBALTCHICHE

ITEM 1-672 through 675: Printed and handwritten copies of an article by LEON TROTSKY dated July 6, 1938, and discussing his connections with the repression of the Kronstadt Rebellion.

ITEM 1-722 through 719: An article from the "LA VOIE DE LENINE", March, 1939, Series. The headings read: "The Revolutionary Moral Philosophies" and "The Methods of Leon Trotsky". The questions discussed were why has the world revolutionary party (the Communist International) degenerated and why has the country of the socialist revolution, the U.S.S.R., been overwhelmed by the totalitarian system. Is the provision of this system's moral philosophy to replace the plan of Bolshevism, its moral philosophy and its methods? VICTOR SERGE is classed among these anti-Trotskyites.

ITEM 1-715: This is a newspaper article by KURT LONDON entitled "Trotskyism and the Spanish Revolution". TROTSKY publicly branded the leaders such as ANDRE and JUAN ADRADE who committed the serious error of splitting themselves from him, as a great many to the Marxists have done for the simple reason that the P.O.U.M. (Workers' Party of Marxists Unification) signed the electoral agreement of the Popular Front in February. It is the feeling of the Marxists that TROTSKY broke definitely with the plans of the revolutionary morals preconceived by the labor movement.

ITEM 1-320 through 318: This is an article by ERICH WOLLENBERG published in 1938, entitled "The Obliteration of the Boundary Between the G.P.U. and the Gestapo". This article mentions the assassination of Ignaz Reiss on September 4, 1937, the doubt in the minds of the people as to whether he was killed by Gestapo Agents or Stalin Agents and the conclusion that Reiss' letter to Stalin in which he announced his break with the latter was his death warrant.

ITEM 1-729: This shows a variety of small documents. The three at the top of the page are probably notes made preparatory to writing an article or speech. The heading is "Bolshevism and Socialist Morality". The lower left corner shows a note from VICTOR SERGE to the Editor of the "Bulletin of the Opposition" dated March 28, 1939, and requesting that they publish his reply to a letter of TROTSKY'S. On a small card in the same corner is a quotation from some author: "We must find more men who devote not only their spare moments but their whole life to the revolution." The card of LEON TROTSKY is seen in the lower left hand corner.

ITEM 1-132: Cover of "Selections from Karl Marx".

ITEM 1-439 through 444: Typewritten manuscript of an article entitled, "Thesis on the Russian Revolution".

ITEM 1-191: Cover of a book by ALBERT GOLDMAN, entitled "Who is Behind the Assassination of Trotsky".

ITEM 2-27: Author LEON TROTSKY, entitled "History of the Russian Revolution".

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ITEM 2-26: Author SIDNEY HOOK, entitled "In Order to Understand Marx".

ITEM 2-357: Author Mme de LAFAYETTE, entitled "La Princesse de Clèves".

ITEM 2-358: Author ARTHUR BYHAN, Curator of the Ethnographic Museum of Hamburg, entitled "The Caucasian Civilization".

ITEM 2-359: "Proletarian Readings" published at Paris every two months. In this issue there appeared an article by VICTOR SERGE, "29 Executed and the End of Yagoda". Post cases on the U.S.S.R. and the Moscow case.

ITEM 2-16: Author JEAN MONTIGNY, entitled "The Entire Truth about a Dramatic Month in our History" (from the Armistice to the National Assembly, June 15, to July 15, 1940).

ITEM 2-2: Author JOAQUIN MAURIN, entitled "Revolution and Counter-Revolution in Spain".

ITEM 1-218: Publication "CRAPOUILLOT". Special issue January, 1938, title of article "Anarchy" by VICTOR SERGE, ALEXANDRE CROIX and JEAN BERNIER.

ITEMS 1-215 through 217: Publication "CLARTE", issues February, 1922; August 15, 1922; September 1, 1922; September 15 and November 15, 1922. Place of publication, France; writers in the issue of September 1, 1922, include VICTOR SERGE, ANDRE BAILLON and others.

ITEM 1-661: Newspaper - P.O.U.M. (organ for the Madrid Section of the Workers' Party for Marxist Unification published at Madrid, Spain; issued October 14, 1936. An article therein states that there are two organizations in Spain which will struggle to the end for the success of the proletariat revolution. They are the C.N.T. and the Anarchist Youth with the P.O.U.M. and its Siberian Communist Youth.

ITEM 1-660: Newspaper LA BATALLA. The central organ of the Workers' Party for Marxist Unification—probably in Spain.

Also contained in the subject's luggage were a number of articles from the newspapers LA BATALLA, L'INTRANSIGANT, PARIS SOIR, LA NACION, and LA TRIBUNE DE GENEVE, none of which appear to have articles of any particular importance from the viewpoint of this report.

ITEM 1-16, 17: This item contains information of general interest in regard to the Spanish Civil War and the formation of the Central Military Committee. "The Central Military Committee is made up of representatives of military workers' families and the Bourgeoise. The first Committee was composed almost entirely of workers, participants of the C.N.T. and the P.O.U.M. and in the course of several weeks others came in and the committee became a political organization with representatives from all parts so that actually, the power entirely and wholly belonged to this central committee. This committee existed so that it could transfer itself to the building of the 'generation' and call itself the Government. This is what it did. The C.N.T., the largest workers' organization, joined this Government. The P.O.U.M. was compelled to join or to disintegrate. Subsequently it would have been necessary for it to join for there was no other way out or otherwise they would be regarded as unlawful. Inasmuch as the Anarchists did not support it there was no other way out....."

ITEM 1-56, 90: Meaningless notes in a diary. Name: HELEN MAGAILOVLA/TKALAVKO.

ITEM 2-222, 225: In this item there is part of a letter from MAURICE to VICTOR written on August 5, 1941. The writer mentions that the visa for Venezuela is possible and in this connection says he will write to ISABELITO. He will also write to HORURTOM and to THORETIO who is the Director of the "JOURNAL OF THE HESPIANIC CONFEDERATION" (?) in New York and who is undoubtedly acquainted with VICTOR as an active member of the C.N.T. It is possible, the writer understands, that THORETIO will be able to accomplish something for VICTOR.

SECTION VI - MISCELLANEOUS

ITEM 2-243: Postcard from H. SGOURDELIS--20, Kydathinaion, Athens, Greece, to VICTOR SERGE, Marseilles, France.

ITEM 2-354: Letter to SERGE from the Minister of National Education concerning the inspection of his papers dated November 5, 1936.

ITEMS 2-240, 244, 246, and 247: These items are mainly inventories of personal belongings of VICTOR SERGE such as miscellaneous articles, contents of trunk, etc.

ITEM 2-287, 286: Personal letter by VICTOR SERGE, Marseilles, December 14, 1941, concerning difficulties of obtaining an American transit visa. The writer mentions ELEANOR DEREN, care of Dr. S. D. DEREN, 102 Summit Avenue, Syracuse, New York.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS

File of State Department reflects a number of persons in New York City endeavored to secure for subject a transit visa to Mexico which, however, was refused on the ground of subject's former connections with the Communist Party. Subject departed from Marseilles, France, in March, 1941 for Martinique, from there proceeded to Dominican Republics, and from there in August 1941 to Mexico via Habana, Cuba. Subject and son were detained by Cuban authorities on suspicion but were subsequently released and permitted to proceed to Mexico.

During the summer and fall of 1940, VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE, known as VICTOR SERGE, a native of Belgium, a political refugee from Russia and a noted author and journalist, was the subject of extensive efforts exerted by DWIGHT and NANCY MacDONALD, 117 East 10th Street, New York City, to secure for the subject a transit certificate through the President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees, to entitle him to enter the United States in transit to

Mexico. The file shows photostatic copies of letters of endorsement written in subject's behalf to GEORGE WARREN, Chairman, President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees, 122 East 22nd Street, New York City, by the following persons:

SIDNEY ~~X~~ HOOK, Professor of Philosophy, New York University, Washington Square, New York City.

JOHN ~~X~~ DEWEY, Professor Emeritus, Columbia University, New York City

FREDERICK ~~X~~ REUSTLE, Minister, Congregational Church, 1 Van Wyck Avenue, Jamaica, New York

MARGARET ~~X~~ MARSHALL, Literary Editor of "The Nation", 55 - 5th Avenue, New York City

WILLIAM ~~X~~ TROY, Chairman, Literary Division, Bennington College, Bennington, Vermont

The Committee refused to recommend this case to the State Department for approval on the ground that subject was a self-admitted former Communist and close associate to LENIN, who, as the result of some political disagreement with the Soviets in power, was imprisoned in Russia from 1930 to 1936 and finally banished. In fact, the Committee recommended to the State Department under date of March 11, 1941 that visa be refused to subject as an alien inadmissible under the Smith Act, having been a member of a subversive organization.

The file reflects that under date of March 25, 1941, the Board of Immigration Appeals (56067/68 - Ellis Island) had under consideration the application of DWIGHT MacDONALD for permission to be given subject to enter the United States and transship to Mexico. The Board held that subject upon arrival at the Port of New York may be permitted to transship to Mexico under safe guards in accordance with the provisions contained in the 9th Proviso of Section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended.

The file reflects that subject resided at the Hotel Rohr at Marseilles, France, departed therefrom for Martinique on March 24, 1941 and from there to Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republics, enroute to Mexico. Under date of May 26, 1941, the State Department communicated with its foreign office at Ciudad Trujillo, suggesting that subject be advised to proceed as soon as possible to Mexico direct without coming to the United States. In reply the State Department was advised under date of June 24, and August 29, 1941, respectively, that subject without applying for a visa of any kind departed from the Dominican Republics on August 22, 1941 on a through ticket issued by the Pan American Airways to Mirida, Yucatan, Mexico by way of Santa di Cuba.

The file finally reflects a communication dated August 29, 1941 from Habana, Cuba, advising of the detention by the Cuban authorities of VICTOR KIBALTCHICHE and his 21 year old son, VLADIMIR, upon their arrival by plane on August 22, 1941. The communication states that the detention was the result of a report that VLADIMIR had made sketches of the Dominican and Cuban coast lines over which he and his father were flying and that he had in his possession sketches of other coast lines; that, however, there having been insufficient evidence to hold them, they were released and permitted to proceed to Mexico.

The State Department files reflect no record of subject having been in the United States at any time.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

File of State Department reflects a number of persons in New York City endeavored to secure for subject a transit visa to Mexico which, however, was refused on the ground of subject's former connections with the Communist Party. Subject departed from Marseilles, France, in March, 1941 for Martinique, from there proceeded to Dominican Republics, and from there in August 1941 to Mexico via Habana, Cuba. Subject and son were detained by Cuban authorities on suspicion but were subsequently released and permitted to proceed to Mexico.

Internal Security - R

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

DATE 6/14/88 BY SP-16SK/VA
4/20/81

The following information has been brought to my attention by Special Agent R. J. Lally of this Section.

The Albany Office is presently conducting an internal security investigation of Eleanora Deren, with aliases, in connection with her Communistic activities. The file on this subject reflects that efforts are being made by that office to ascertain her present whereabouts. An application has been submitted to the Bureau from the State Department of one Alexander Hackenschmied for an immigration visa. Hackenschmied's application states that he is presently married to Eleanora Deren, and lists their address as 2326 Stanley Hills Drive, Los Angeles, California. (Bureau File No. 40-37697)

Solomon David Deren, the father of Eleanora Deren, who is also a subject of the internal security investigation, is one of Hackenschmied's visa sponsors. The Form submitted by Hackenschmied states that Eleanora Deren was divorced in 1938 from Gregory Bardacke. Bardacke is also a subject in the internal security case. From this it would appear certain that Eleanora Deren, the wife of Hackenschmied, is identical with Eleanora Deren, subject of the security investigation.

For the assistance of the Internal Security Section, there is attached a copy of a memorandum prepared in this Section showing Eleanora Deren's connection with Victor Lvovitch Kibaltchiche, (Bureau File No. 100-36676) who appears to be quite clearly a Trotskyite agent and also on the Executive List of the Communist International.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: It is suggested that this information be furnished to the Los Angeles and Albany Offices for their assistance in connection with the investigation of these individuals.

Respectfully,

S. S. Alden

MEXICO SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES - C

April 22, 1943

DETAILS:

It has been learned that the directors of the Trotskyite group which are trying to incite a separatist movement in Canada are the following: VICTOR SERGE, JULIAN GORKIN, GUSTAV REGLER, and FRANCISCO ZAMORA. Informant has this to say of each of these persons:

VICTOR SERGE - He originally was from Russia but is now a naturalized Mexican. He lives at Victoria 104, Dpto. 15, Mexico, D. F. He has been affiliated to the IV International since the arrival of TROTSKY in Mexico. He frequently calls on Mrs. TROTSKY. He is believed to be the director of this TROTSKYITE group. (X)(C)

JULIAN GORKIN - Informant states that this is an assumed name, inasmuch as GORKIN is a Catalanian. GORKIN lives with VICTOR SERGE, at which place meetings of this small TROTSKYITE nucleus are held. GORKIN entered Mexico as a refugee. During the Spanish revolution in Spain he was prosecuted under the charge of being the most active member of the P.O.U.M., a TROTSKYITE organization. He was charged with being a 5th columnist. (X)

GUSTAV REGLER - He is a German well known in Mexico for his affiliation to the IV International. REGLER is a frequent caller at the home of SERGE and GORKIN. Not much of his true efforts are known in this group, but the theory is that he obtains money from Jewish associates in Mexico City as well as from Mrs. TROTSKY. (X)

FRANCISCO ZAMORA - He is a Nicaraguan writer who is now a naturalized Mexican citizen. He lives at José María Iglesias #29. He writes for the Mexico City newspaper "El Universal." He has a column on the editorial page known as "Por el Ojo de la Llave." ZAMORA makes no secret of the fact that he is an affiliate of the IV International. He has been known to travel throughout the U. S. on frequent occasions. (X)

It has been observed that this same group holds its meetings at Guadalupe #219 and at Pasaje Iturbide #18 (Bolivar #23.) At this latter address they prepare the publication known as "Quetzal" which is definitely a TROTSKYITE organ. The owners of this latter place are listed as VICTOR SERGE and a Frenchman by the name of MARCEL RIVERT. Informant states that RIVERT is a member of this TROTSKYITE group but is not as active as the others. (X)

RESIDENT OF MEXICO CLAIMS STALINIST COMMUNISTS SMASH "EHRlich AND ALTER" DEMONSTRATION IN MEXICO

Writer states that on the night of Apr. 1st, his group had a lively meeting which terminated in a moral victory over "dangerous hooligans." Writer, with Jacob Abrams (an old friend of Debs and director of a Mexico City Jewish leftist daily) spent some time blocked without arms in a blind hole (Quoting translation) "while Stalinists sacked the club and a few bloodied comrades fought against them." Writer continues that his group came little short of being torn to pieces; that Gorkin (G 7000) and Gironella were seriously wounded but not dangerously so. Writer's group was commemorating Ehrlich and Alter.

Writer continues that one of the assailants made a rather curious remark to Laurette, who arrived in the midst of the fray, saying that the "Jew Gorkin" was inside, others were saying in the street that it was a "German" meeting.

Writer states that the PC (Examiner: Communist Party) had recruited and organized a true mob with quite a few young toughs (Voyous) and a few drunk muscle men (Assommeurs). The police arrived in time to prevent any deaths. Writer comments that Vlady was very cool and courageous. It was known in town previously that the Communists would attempt to prevent by force the Ehrlich and Alter meeting.

Writer's enclosed account of the (Quoting translation) "Bloody Communist aggression in Mexico City" is dated Apr. 2, 1943, and appears to be written as a news story.

The Ibero-Mexican Cultural Center of Spanish refugees organized an invitational meeting to commemorate the deaths of Carlos Trescu, Victor Alter and Heinrich Ehrlich. The speakers were to be Maldonado (CMT), Jacob Abrams (Jewish Socialists), Julian Gorkin, Paul Chevalier and Victor Serge (B 7000, 864) for the European socialists.

At 8 o'clock, a band of approximately 200 communists attacked the building, broke down an iron door, burst into the room in search of the speakers, in order to beat them. The major portion of the bar, billiard parlor and the club were wrecked. The assailants destroyed books from the library and paintings on the walls. Several revolver shots went through the windows, as the mob was armed with revolvers, knives, clubs and broken furniture.

The mob appeared to have been recruited from the streets, were probably paid, and were lead by party militants crying "Germans! Enemies of Mexico!" Julian Gorkin and Enrique Gironella, formerly a professor at Barcelona, subsequently editor of "Batalla" were wounded; one of the mob was hospitalized, while there were some thirty slightly wounded.

During the fight, "militant communists" telephoned the newspapers that some laborers had just prevented a fascist meeting which had begun with cries of "Viva Hitler, Franco, and Mussolini!" This was told the police who arrested 93 attackers, 13 of whom were convicted of aggression, attempted murder, breaking furniture, etc., and imprisoned among them a normal school professor, member of the Communist Party.

After the intervention of the police, the meeting was held with approximately 300 present from the Jewish colony, the European socialist emigration and sympathetic Mexican groups. The scheduled addresses were given; Liconciado Madero, grandson of Francisco Madero spoke in memory of Tresca, Ehrlich and Alter and to associate himself with socialist and labor protests raised in the U. S. on this subject. (Quoting translation) "The honoring of Carlo Tresca does not permit any specific accusation, but the Ehrlich and Alter case provoked the most indignant protests against the totalitarianism which assassinated them -- along with other defenders of freedom of opinion." All of the speakers stressed their admiration for the Red Army and the Russian people (Quoting Translation) "which the crimes of despotism knife in the back."

The attitude of the Mexican officials was strictly formal (D'Une Correction Absolue).

The Communists, April 2, made a great effort to influence the press but the attack was patently criminal. "El Popular," the Communist daily newspaper, gave an entirely untrue version in 15 lines, attempting to minimize the gravity of the program, which was a deliberate attempt at collective murder.

Some three weeks previously, Leo Katz and Zuckerman (Lambert) interrupted, with violence, a Bund meeting of the Mexican Israelite Center in mourning for Ehrlich and Alter shouting (Quoting translation) "Death to the nazi spies!"

Examiner's Note: Writer and Julian Gorkin have written anti-Stalinist articles. Debs mentioned is possibly the deceased U. S. labor leader, Eugene V. Debs. Carlo Tresca, editor of the New York Italian news-paper "Il Martello" was assassinated Jan. 12, 1943.

Victor Alter and Heinrich Ehrlich are said to be Polish socialists, executed in Russia shortly after proposing a Jewish International Committee to fight Nazism. Maldonado is probably Emilio Maldonado (Gs 4601), apparently administrator of "Solidaridad Obrera," connected with the Confederacion Nacional De Trabajadores De Espana and possibly with the Federacion Iberica Anarquista De Solidaridad Americana.

Under separate cover in the same mail, writer sends to Sr. D. MacDonald, at 117 East 10th Street, New York, N. Y., two clippings describing the incident in question: one, entitled "Investigaciones Por El Incidente Del Centro Ibero-Americano" from "El Popular," April 3, 1942, and the other "10 Consignados Por El Escandalo En El Centro Ibero Americano" from La Prensa, April 3, 1943.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

1. In a letter dated 3 January 1944 addressed to Dwight ~~MACDONALD~~, care of Politics, 45 Astor Place, NEW YORK CITY, V. ~~PODEREVSKI~~, alias of Victor ~~SERGE~~, Hermosillo 19, Dep. 5, MEXICO CITY, acknowledges receipt of addressee's air mail letter of 9 December. Pleased with the prospectus of Politics, writer requests that addressee send a dozen copies to Bartolome COSTA, Ediciones Quetzal, Pasaje Iturbide 18, MEXICO CITY. Writer states he and COSTA will try to organize a small, regular circulation, which he believes will probably reach 25 copies.

2. SERGE, novelist, journalist, and reportedly a Trotskyite leader, submits the following information for publication in Politics:

a. Writer states he occupied a cell in the Prison Interieure, MOSCOW, Russia, early in 1933, with the ex-chief of the cabinet of Rykov, one WESTEROV, first name unknown, who was later shot.

b. Writer advises that Emelian YAROSLAVSKI, a former Bolshevik, died in Russia in December 1943. He states that YAROSLAVSKI, a convict, was deported to Siberia, but he escaped and organized the Worker's Red-Guards (Gardes-Rouges Ouvrieres) in October 1917. YAROSLAVSKI was made Party Historian of this organization, but he was later accused of Trotskyism and his "History" was removed from the libraries. Writer states that the Central Committee accused YAROSLAVSKI of directing the anti-religious movement, the Society of Atheists (Societe Des Athees), and its publication, ~~X~~ Bezbojnik, the God-Less ~~X~~ (Le Sans-Dieu). He states that the German invasion forced the Russian Government to seek a reconciliation with the followers of YAROSLAVSKI although their anti-religious publications are still suppressed.

c. Writer states that in May 1943, a group of socialist refugees, composed of almost every nationality in Europe, and some militant Mexicans adopted the platform of a common movement, essentially defined by the words "Socialism and Liberty." He adds that members were received from Chile, Argentina, and Uruguay. Writer advises that this group began the publication of ~~X~~ El Mundo in June 1943, under the direction of Professor Enrique ~~X~~ GIRONELLA of BARCELONA, Spain. The following persons were listed as contributors to El Mundo: R ~~X~~ ROCKER; Jose ~~X~~ RIERA; Victor ~~X~~ SERGE; Pierre ~~X~~ MEUNIER; Julian ~~X~~ GORKIN, Spanish labor leader, author, and anti-Stalinist;

Re: Victor Lvovitch Kibaltchiche, with aliases,
Victor Napoleon Kibaltchiche, Victor Napoleon
Lvovitch, Victor Serge, V. Poderevski

It is reported that Victor Lvovitch Kibaltchiche, more commonly known as Victor Serge, was born at Brussels, Belgium on December 30, 1890 of parents who were Russian Revolutionary emigres. His youth was spent in Belgium and in England. During his early years in Brussels, Serge was employed as a photographer apprentice, cartoonist, clerk, printer, journalist and translator. At the age of fifteen, he was a member of the Young Socialist Guard of Ixelles and associated himself with a "Revolutionary Group" of Brussels. Serge was a contributor to "Temps Nouveaux," "Libertaire" and "Guerre Social." In 1910, Serge was reported to be a writer for a publication, "L'Anarchie," and was arrested in connection with others charged with unlawful political activity, and upon conviction was sentenced to five years of solitary confinement with hard labor. Serge was released from imprisonment in 1917, at which time he went to Barcelona and became affiliated with the C.N.T., believed to be the organization known as "Confederacion Nacional de Trabajo," which has been reported to be a Spanish Anarchist Labor group.

According to his own statement, while en route to Russia, Serge was arrested at Paris, France and ordered interned in a concentration camp, but in January 1917, was exchanged as a Bolshevik hostage for an officer of the French Military Mission who was being held in Russia. He proceeded to Petrograd, Russia, where he allegedly became a member of the Russian Communist Party and collaborated with the Executive Committee of the Communist International. Subsequently Serge spent considerable time in Germany and Austria, where he was a participant in the 1923 preparations for revolutionary activity. Serge returned to Moscow, Russia in 1925 and three years later was imprisoned. In 1933, Serge was deported to Orenbourg and in 1936, he was banished from Russia, his Soviet citizenship having been rescinded without legal notification. It is reported that Serge occupied important posts in the beginning of the Bolshevik regime and was associated with Lenin, Zinoviev and Trotsky.

It is reported that on August 18, 1919, Victor Serge was married to Luibov Roussakov at Petrograd, Russia, and it is believed that his two children, Vladimir and Jeanniene, were born at Petrograd, Russia on June 15, 1930 and February 28, 1935, respectively.

It is reported that on August 14, 1940, Victor Serge wrote a letter from Marseille, France, directed to Max Eastman, expressing his need for help from Max Eastman and other American friends in connection with attempts being made by Victor Serge to obtain visas for himself and his son Vladimir, Serge stating at that time that he was one of the last refugees of the Russian Revolution. It is reported that Serge was also interested in obtaining a United States visa on behalf of Laura Sejourne with whom Serge was reported to have lived for several years. It was reported that Laura Sejourne, nee Valenti, was born at Aguila, Italy on October 24, 1911, was a French film actress and author and was evacuated from Paris, France, on June 12, 1941. It is reported that among those individuals in the United States who were apparently interested in assisting Serge to gain admittance to the United States were Nancy MacDonald and Dwight MacDonald, 117 East Tenth Street, New York City, New York.

Information was received that Serge arrived in the Dominican Republic from France on August 14, 1941, at which time Serge advised a representative of another United States Government agency that he had been a member of the Russian Comintern and the "Red General Staff." At that time Serge declared that the Party of Leon Trotsky had disappeared with Trotsky's death and Serge declared that he, himself, was a Socialist-Democrat and stated that first and foremost he was an anti-Stalinist and predicted that the government of Stalin in Russia would be replaced by a "Popular Front Government." (S-1) & (u) unclassified per nazy let 4/29/87 SPYEM/akh 5/25/87

It was reported that during the summer and fall of 1940, Serge was the subject of extensive efforts asserted by the above-mentioned Dwight and Nancy MacDonald to obtain for Serge a transit certificate through the President's Advisory Committee on Political Refugees to enable Serge to enter the United States, en route to Mexico. It is reported that the following individuals endorsed Serge's application for the transit certificate:

Sidney Hook, Professor of Philosophy, New York University, Washington Square, New York City.

John Dewey, Professor Emeritus, Columbia University, New York City.

Frederick Reustle, Minister, Congregational Church, 1 Van Wyck Avenue, Jamaica, New York

Margaret Marshall, Literary Editor of "The Nation," 55-Fifth Avenue, New York City

William Troy, Chairman, Literary Division, Bennington College, Bennington, Vermont

Eugene Lyons, Editor of the "American Mercury," 570 Lexington Avenue, New York City

Meyer Shapiro, Department of Fine Arts and Archeology, Columbia University, New York City

James T. Farrell, 185 Lexington Avenue, New York City

Max Eastman, New York City

Arthur Pinous, 32 West 96th Street, New York City

In the absence of permission to transit the United States, it is reported that Serge left the Dominican Republic on August 22, 1941, and proceeded to Mexico via Pan American Airways through Cuba. It was reported that upon the arrival of Victor Serge and his son Vladimir from Cuba on August 22, 1941, these individuals were detained by Cuban authorities as a result of a report that Vladimir, the son, had made sketches of the Dominican and Cuban coast lines. However, it is reported that they were released by Cuban authorities for reasons of insufficient evidence and were permitted to proceed to Mexico.

(u) (S-2) (X) [A confidential source has reported that on January 3, 1944, Victor Serge, using the name V. Poderevski, Hermosillo No. 19, Dep. 5, Mexico City, Mexico, directed a communication to Dwight MacDonald, care of "Politics," 45 Astor Place, New York City, New York, stating that in May, 1943, a group of Socialist refugees had adopted a platform of a common movement essentially defined by the words "Socialism and Labor," and this group had begun the publication of "El Mundo" in June, 1943 under the direction of Professor Enrique Gironella of Barcelona, Spain with the assistance of such contributors as Julian Gorkin, Victor Serge and Marceau Pivert, the latter described as an author and secretary of the "Socialist Party of Workers and Peasants." It is reported that Victor Serge has communicated various anti-Stalinist material to the United States, sometimes using the return address L. Sejourne, Hermosillo No. 19, Dep. 5, Mexico, D. F. It is reported by a confidential source that on April 10, 1944, Victor Serge directed a letter from Mexico City to Mrs. S. M. Levitas, The New Leader, Seven East 15th Street, New York City, enclosing information concerning activities of representatives of the Russian Comintern in Mexico, Serge expressing his willingness that the material be used for publication. At this time Serge related information concerning Francisco Largo Caballero, described as a former Spanish Socialist leader and former President of the Committee of the Spanish Republic who, Serge stated, was placed in a concentration camp in Germany after Vichy authorities had turned Largo over to the Germans. Serge stated that Largo is in need of food, clothes and medicine and Serge asks whether it will be possible to raise the question of an exchange of prisoners in the case of Largo. Serge also requested that the information concerning Largo be communicated to the Jewish Labor Committee and stated that the Spanish Socialists would also communicate with that Committee. (S-2) (X)

✓ [It is reported that Victor Serge has become a naturalized Mexican citizen and has been associated in some manner with a "Fourth International" group in Mexico and is said to have associated with Directors of a Trotskyite group in Mexico which was interested in inciting a separatist movement against England through French Canadians in Canada. It is also reported that Serge is interested in a movement looking toward the creation of a "New International." (The above information taken from 100-36676) (X)

MEXICO TROTSKYITES PERIL RAIL TRANSPORT

Incite Wildcat Strikes to Block Vital Shipments to U.S.

By OWEN ROCHE --

MEXICO CITY, (ALN).—Trotzkites headed by Rodolfo Pina Soria, were revealed this week to be the instigators of a continuing series of wildcat strikes on the Mexican National Railways which have seriously hindered the export of vital war materials to the U. S. and split the 60,000 strong Railway Workers Union into two warring factions.

A Mexican Trotskyist triumvirate composed of Fernandez Vilchis, Roberto Galicia and the naturalized Spaniard Muniz pulls the wires which lead through Rodrigo Garcia Trevino, economic counsellor to Alfredo Navarette, head of the pro-Sinarquista National Proletarian Confederation (CNP) to Pina Soria. The latter, who was expelled from the Confederation of Mexican Workers (CTM) four years ago for

"Trotskyist factionalism," has formed an alliance with the extreme right-wing faction in the rail union and various other dissidents against the section loyal to the CTM.

Vilchis, Galicia and Muniz take their directives in turn from the international Trotskyist executives, composed of Victor Kibaltich Podereffsky (Serge), Julian Ferrer (Gorkin), and Friedrich Schulbacher (Bach). Serge, who came to Mexico after the fall of France, is known to have collaborated in that country with Jacques Doriot. Gorkin, who entered Mexico in 1940, was convicted by the Spanish Loyalist government of treason for his part in the famous POUM uprising. Bach, who is comparatively unknown, has been in Mexico since 1926 and claims to be a Swiss.

Since the outbreak of Trotskyist agitation within the union, about 75 wildcat strikes have taken place, despite the fact that almost all of Mexico's raw material contribution to the Allies is transported via her national railways. Conflicts within the union have reached a fever pitch, with armed bands fighting each other for possession of the Mexico City union hall.

This situation was mainly responsible for Camacho's March decree giving almost dictatorial powers to Railway Administrator Andres Ortiz, including power to abrogate labor contract clauses "which may interfere with operating efficiency." CTM general secretary Fidel Velazquez has confessed that he is unable to cope with the situation. It is generally believed that the government will shortly be forced to step in with an iron hand, possibly militarizing the railways and placing them under the direction of General Lazaro Cardenas, Minister of National Defense.

PARTISAN REVIEW

P. O. BOX 34, STATION D, NEW YORK CITY

THE PARTISAN REVIEW FUND FOR EUROPEAN WRITERS AND ARTISTS

.....has been organized to help left-wing anti-fascist writers and artists abroad, especially those with no political party to help them. All operating expenses have been donated, so that every penny received will go for living expenses or passage money for refugees.

CASE NO. 1: VICTOR SERGE

1890: Born in Brussels, son of revolutionary Russian emigres.
1919-1928: Lived in Moscow, edited the magazine, Communist International.
1929-1936: In prison or exile in the Soviet Union as an anti-Stalinist.
1936: Released as result of worldwide campaign headed by Andre Gide and Ignazio Silone.
1937-1940: Lived in Paris, supported himself by his novels and histories.

Chief works: Ville Conquise (novel); S'il Est Nimit Dang le Siecle (novel); Russia, Twenty Years After; Portrait of Stalin. (Readers of PARTISAN REVIEW will remember his contributions in the August 1933 and January 1940 issues.)

Serge writes: "Of all I once owned - clothes, books, writings - I was able to save only what my friends and I could carry away on our backs in knap-sacks. It is very little but fortunately includes the manuscripts which I have already begun. All my material resources have disappeared. I am cut off from the world. This letter is a sort of S.O.S. I have scarcely any money left: we are eating only one meal a day and it is a very poor one at that. I don't at all know how we are going to hold out." In a later letter he writes: "The situation becomes more and more difficult for me in all respects, almost untenable: no place of refuge, no resources, no help and difficulties of every kind. I must hold out and again I will make every effort to hold out."

It is clearly necessary to bring Serge to this country with the least possible delay. Since he is not a member of any political party, he is cut off from sources of aid open to other refugees. He is accompanied by his twenty-year old son, who is a painter, and his young daughter. We estimate it will cost $800 to bring all three to this country.

$800 TO SAVE AN OUTSTANDING INTELLECTUAL ! WE APPEAL FOR YOUR HELP.

for the editors of Partisan Review

NOTE: Any funds raised beyond what is needed in the Serge case will be applied to other cases. Details on request.

Since we sent out our first appeal for aid to bring Victor out of Leningrad and to keep him alive and while, we have received letters indicating the high regard American intellectuals have for Victor Serge. Some extracts follow:

from J. P. KELLY: "I am glad to hear that there is a movement to enable Victor Serge to enter this country. I know of no one whose past career gives him a better title to seek refuge here....His intellectual honesty has put him out of sympathy with any of the political sects and cliques that might otherwise be interested in helping him to escape."

from MARGARET MARSHALL, literary editor of The Nation: "My own interest in Serge is primarily the fact that he is a talented novelist....I am convinced it would strengthen our defenses against totalitarianism to bring him to this country."

from MAX EASTMAN: "Serge is a man of flexible and humane intelligence, as well as rare honesty and courage, an independent with a radical past -- one of the first lights that will be doused by a fascist regime."

from EUGENE WOLF, editor of The American Mercury: "Victor Serge's... courageous exposure of the Russian regime and his long fight against dictatorship... has, in my opinion, done a major service to the cause of freedom the world over."

from MELVIN SCHEINER, Department of Fine Arts, Columbia University: "For his opinions, Serge has already suffered seven years of imprisonment within the Soviet Union....He is a thoroughly independent spirit, attached to no political group, and therefore must rely on the help of those who value him as a writer and as an heroic personality who has made the greatest sacrifices for truth."

from SIDNEY HOOB, Chairman of the Department of Philosophy, New York University: "Victor Serge is known to me as a profound student of social theory and practice whose writings have thrown a flood of light on the shortcomings of all totalitarian cultures."

from JAMES T. MURPHY, author of Studs Lonigan: "Victor Serge is a talented writer of absolute incorruptible principles....I know that to me, personally, his writings have been a source of inspiration and encouragement."

VICTOR SERGE MUST BE SAVED!

Synopsis of Facts:

Subject born in Belgium in 1890, the son of Russian parents. In 1910 he was a writer for "L'ANARCHIE" and later was sentenced to serve five years at hard labor for his socialistic activity. He thereafter went to Spain and became a member of the U.N.T.A. (CONFEDERACION NACIONAL DE TRABAJO). In 1917, he went to France and Russia and became a member of the Communist Party. In 1933 subject was exiled from Russia and his Russian citizenship was taken from him in 1936. He thereafter lived in France, and friends endeavored to secure permission for him to enter the United States. This was refused, and he went to Martinique in March, 1941, and from there to the Dominican Republic, and finally in September, 1941, he entered Mexico as a political refugee. Subject presently resides at Hermosilla 19, Apartment 5, Mexico City. Subject is associated with JULIAN GORKIN, MARCEAU PIVERT, and other Socialists in the publication of the magazine "MUNDO" which is an organ of the international party, "MOVIMIENTO SOCIALISMO Y LIBERTAD." This organization is Communist, and is against all organized societies, following in great part the principles of TROTSKY.

INFORMATION CONTAINED
EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN
OTHERWISE

The following information concerning the subject was secured from Source A, which is highly reliable: The subject was born in Brussels, Belgium, on December 30, 1890, of Russian parents. He spent his youth in Belgium and in England, and worked as a photographer, cartoonist, clerk, painter, journalist, author and translator. At the age of 15, he was a member of the Young Socialist Guard of Ixelles, and a member of the Revolutionary Group of Brussels.

In 1910 he was a writer for "L'ANARCHIE", and was indicted and condemned to five years of solitary confinement with hard labor for unlawful socialist activity. He was released in 1917, and went to Barcelona where he became a painter and a member of the C.N.T. (CONFEDERACION NACIONAL DE TRABAJO). He also served as a contributor to the publication "TIERRA Y LIBERTAD" (Land and Liberty) and was a participant in the first revolutionary attempt of July, 1917. He thereafter left for Russia and was arrested in Paris, where he was interned in a concentration camp under the Clemenceau Ministry, and was later exchanged in January, 1917, as a Bolshevik hostage for an officer of the French Military Mission who was being held in Russia.

On arriving in Russia the subject became a member of the Russian Communist Party and a collaborator of ZINOVIEV on the Executive Committee of the Russian International. He later became an associate of the general staff of the Defense, and superintendent of the files of the Secret Police. He also served as a writer for the "COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL" and spent several years in Germany and in Austria.

In 1925 he returned to Moscow, but was later deported in 1933 to Orenbourg, and finally his Soviet nationality was taken from him in 1936. On August 15, 1919, the subject was married in Petrograd, Russia, to LUIVOV MOSELEVITCH.

Source B has advised that a number of individuals in New York City endeavored to secure permission for the subject to enter the United States. However, such permission was refused because of his connections with the Communist Party. These individuals include SIDNEY HOOK, JOHN DEWEY, FREDERICK REUSTLE, MARGARET MARSHALL, WILLIAM TROY, EUGENE LYONS, MEYER SHAPIRO, JAMES T. FARRELL, MAX EASTMAN, ARTHUR PINCUS. Practically the entire time from 1936 until March, 1941, the subject resided in France. In March, 1941, he went to Martinique, and from there proceeded to the Dominican Republic. In September, 1941, he left Havana, Cuba, for Mexico City, where he has since resided.

The following information has been secured from Source C:
The subject entered Mexico on September 3, 1941, and at first lived at Victoria 104, Apartment 15, Mexico City, but afterwards moved to Hermosillo 19, Apartment 5, Mexico City, and he still resides at this latter address. On entering Mexico, he was accompanied by his son, VLADIMIR ~~attached~~ who was at that time 21 years of age. ~~C~~

In September, 1944, the subject sought permission from the Mexican Government to remain in the country for an additional length of time, and he showed a letter from the ~~Banco de Transportes~~ in which it was stated he had a deposit of 1200 pesos. He also exhibited a letter from General CARDENAS to the Department of Gobernacion, recommending himself, MARCEAU PIVERT, and JULIAN GORKIN, in order to secure permission to enter Mexico originally. This subject was aided considerably by MAX EASTMAN of Groton-on-Hudson, New York; NANCY MACDONALD, FRANK TANNENBAUM, and the Committee on Behalf of the Victims of the Fascism. MAX EASTMAN originally addressed a letter to FRANK TANNENBAUM of Columbia University, requesting him to do all possible to expedite the issuing of a Mexican visa for the subject. In accordance with the request of MAX EASTMAN, FRANK TANNENBAUM addressed a letter to General CARDENAS, asking his assistance in this matter, also FRANCES TOOR of the Comite Pro Ayuda a las Victimas del Fascismo, ~~(Committee in Behalf of the Victims of Fascism)~~ Manchester 8, Mexico, D. F., addressed a letter to the Secretario de Gobernacion, Mexico, urging his assistance on the subject's petition for a visa. ~~C~~

In addition to the foregoing, the subject was aided by a letter addressed to the Secretary of Government by Julian GORKIN, Director of EDICIONES QUETZAL S. A., Pasaje Iturbide 18, Mexico, D. F. At the time of the subject's petition for a Mexican visa, the PARTISAN REVIEW FUND FOR EUROPEAN WRITERS AND ARTISTS, of 45 Astor Place, New York City, published a circular concerning the case of VICTOR SERGE. This circular set forth statements from all individuals supporting SERGE's cause, including JOHN DEWEY, MARGARET MARSHALL, MAX EASTMAN, EUGENE LYONS, MEYER SHAPIRO, SIDNEY HOOK and JAMES T. FARRELL.

The PARTISAN REVIEW of New York also issued a circular in which the following information was set forth concerning the subject:

"1890 - born in Brussels, son of revolutionary Russian emigres
1919-1928 - lived in Moscow, headed the magazine COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL
1929-1936 - in prison or exile in the Soviet Union as an anti-Stalinist
1936 - released as result of world-wide campaign headed by ANDRE GITE and IGNACIO SILONE
1937-1940 - lived in Paris, supporting himself by his novels and histories.

This circular urged that contributions be made to bring the subject to the United States and "to save an outstanding intellectual."

On February 29, 1944, the subject using the name V. PODEREVSKI, addressed a letter to Mr. S. M. LEVITAS, "THE NEW LEADER," 7 East 15th Street, New York City, in which he commented upon the recent appeal made by a group of Catalan politicians who wrote to STALIN, begging him to protect the liberty of Catalonia. The subject stated that this seemed to be a joke. In this same communication he submitted rather detailed information on Spanish immigration to Mexico.

~~MCMRS~~ Source D has advised that the subject has been in correspondence with DWIGHT MACDONALD and his wife NANCY, at 45 Astor Place, New York, concerning the establishment of a new international socialist group. MACDONALD has recently been editing the magazine "POLITICS," and formerly was of the staff of the "PARTISAN REVIEW" of New York City.

On April 10, 1944, the subject addressed a letter to Mr. S. M. LEVITAS, "THE NEW LEADER," 7 East 15th Street, New York City. In this communication the subject stated as follows:

"In the next few days the Mexican Communist Party is going to hold a national Counsel (Va Tenir.....Un Conseil Nacional). We already know that it will decide unanimously to change its name and will be called henceforth the Mexican Socialist Party like the PC of Cuba. This deception will deceive no one for a moment, but it presents here some real advantages for the totalitarian party, since there exists no Mexican Socialist Party, but rather a state of spirit vaguely socialist, although rather scattered. It is evident that this camouflage so much the more impudent since the Communists have not ceased, for many years, to persecute, slander and even shoot authentic socialists, complies with the needs of a policy whose consequences can be serious. It is a question of exploiting the prestige of socialism at the moment when 'communism' is falling into disrepute, and of preparing for the day when the socialist movement will recover from the ... false 'socialist' parties, which will demand participation in the international congress, will pretend to represent the countries, will sow a profound confusion of spirit, will exploit the singular candor of theorists such as Harold Laski. Let us not fail to notice that this vast maneuver runs the risk of being dangerous for socialism."

In this same letter he also included information concerning Spanish Socialist activities. In a communication dated June 12, 1944, also addressed to Mr. S. M. LEVITAS, the subject submitted information concerning the Spanish underground and conditions in Africa. He also answered a criticism made concerning a previous article he had written regarding the Basques in Spain.

The following information has been secured from Source E: In February, 1942, the subject, accompanied by MARCEAU PIVERT, traveled to Veracruz, Mexico, to meet relatives who arrived on the SS NYASSA, in order to facilitate and help solve the formalities of disembarking. These men were assisted by Miss MARIA DE LA SELVA, Calle Ramon Guzman 44, Mexico City. This individual is a sister of ROGERIO DE LA SELVA, private secretary to the Secretary of Gobernacion.

On April 1, 1943, the subject participated in the protest meeting which was held at the Centro Cultural Ibero-Mexicano at Venustiano Carranza 30, Mexico City. This meeting was called to protest the killing of CARLOS FRESCA in New York City. The directors of the meeting were the following: PABLO CHEVALIER, JACOB ABRAHAM, JULIAN GORKIN, and EMILIO MALDONADO. It was intended to accuse the Communists of the murder of CARLOS FRESCA. Just after the meeting began, a group of Communists rushed into the hall and a brawl resulted in which several were seriously hurt, and 73 individuals were arrested. The subject was scheduled to speak, but the meeting was broken up before he had such an opportunity.

At present the subject is actively associated with JULIAN GORKIN, MARCEAU PIVERT, and other followers of the Trotskyite school, in the publishing of the magazine "MUNDO" ("WORLD") which is the official organ of the new international known as "MOVIMIENTO SOCIALISMO Y LIBERTAD" ("MOVEMENT FOR SOCIALISM AND LIBERTY"). The purposes of this organization include the establishment of international socialism and the destruction of all established governments. The organization is strongly anti-Communist as well as anti-Fascist. In the first issue of "MUNDO" which was published in June, 1943, an article was published entitled "THE NECESSITY FOR THE RENOVATION OF SOCIALISM." This was written by subject. Another article by this subject appeared in the October and November, 1943, issue. This article was entitled "WHERE IS STALIN GOING?" The writer attacked the dictatorship of STALIN, and stated that if STALIN has his way in Europe, all the European countries will become prisoners the same as Russia, but he states he believes a change of government in Russia is possible, and that such a change will bring freedom to the Soviet and all the neighboring countries.

The subject has written various books including "PROBLEMS OF SOCIALISM," which was written in collaboration with MARCEAU PIVERT; "LENIN IN 1917;" "FROM LENIN TO STALIN," and "HITLER AGAINST STALIN."

On September 1, 1944, the subject addressed another letter to Mr. S. M. LEVITAS of the "NEW LEADER" in which he criticized a member of the French Provisional Government and "totalitarian" Russia. He also commented upon the Spanish political leaders in Mexico who had endorsed the Latin union of France, Spain, Italy and Portugal. In addition, he described the resolution which had just been adopted by the Commission of Independent Socialist Groups, which resolution dealt with the relationship between the Polish and Russian people. This resolution advocated a moral intervention in order to obtain the liberation of the millions of internées in Russian concentration camps, the liberation and repatriation as soon as possible of the half-million Polish captives deported to Siberia and Central Asia, and basic democratic liberties for the Soviet workers and fighters. The resolution stated that the Communist domination of Poland would constitute a threat to democracy, and to Central Europe, and a hindrance to labor movements and Socialist movements even in Poland.

The following is a description of the subject which was furnished by Source C:

RE: VICTOR LVOVITCH KIBALTCHICHE,
With aliases;

Classified by ~~SP-16SK/BMF~~
Declassify on: OADR

Source C has advised that according to a letter written by JEAN MALAQUAIS, whose real name is JEAN MALACKI and whose residence is 63 Dinamarca, Mexico, D. F., addressed to DWIGHT McDONALD, care of POLITICS, 43 Astor Place, New York City, dated December 24, 1944, the writer had a quarrel with his fellow Socialist VICTOR SERGE, the subject in the instant case. It was stated that the subject carefully avoids the words "Socialism", "proletariat", "revolution" and it was stated in addition that the subject "wonders" whether the total occupation of Germany by the Allies is not a necessity. The subject is also reported as stating that he favors a Socialist-inclined Europe under the direction of the democratic masses, technicians and English conservatives. The writer of the letter stated that it was in this particular reference to conservatives that a break took place between the writer and the subject and the entire blame has been placed upon the subject by JULIAN GORKIN (JULIAN GOMEZ GARCIA) and others, apparently referring to MARCEAU PIVERT and those associated in the Socialist movement in Mexico. This same source has further advised that the writer of the instant communication, JEAN MALACKI, is married to GALINA YURKEVITCH MALAQUAIS. He was born in Poland of Russian parents and lived in France, having served in the French Army. He was taken prisoner in June 1940 and subsequently released and he went to Venezuela, later coming to Mexico.

It has also been reported that the subject in a letter addressed to DWIGHT McDONALD, care of POLITICS, 45 Astor Place, New York City, dated October 10, 1944, stated that he would like to re-establish contact with the magazine POLITICS and that he would like to make a trip to the United States in the near future.

Source D has advised that during the period of 1925-1930, the subject was one of the best known Communist writers in Europe. He was editor of the Communist publication, "L'Humanite" of Paris and during this period he was considered to be the most authoritative spokesman for LEON TROTSKY in France and all of Europe. When TROTSKY fell into disfavor with the Soviet authorities the subject travelled to Russia to assist him but on his arrival there he was incarcerated and remained in Moscow as a prisoner for several years. On his return to France the subject maintained his belief in the Trotskyite doctrines and in fact was a stronger advocate than previously.

According to this same source, the subject at the present time is opposed to the Trotskyite movement and is entirely separated from it. He has also indicated that he disapproves of the group which follows MARCEAU PIVERT and in addition is opposed to the POUM of JULIAN GORKIN.

At the present the subject is considered a moderate Socialist and according to this source, which is considered reliable, his political, social and economic beliefs are closer to those of Christian Socialism than to Marxism. However, he is well known as a bitter enemy of JOSEPH STALIN whom he considers the greatest danger for the world in Europe.

The subject lives in Mexico in comparative modesty, spending most of his time at Hermosillo 19, studying and writing. He seldom visits or attends public functions.

Source E has advised that when the subject was a prisoner in Russia one of the individuals who was most influential in securing his freedom was the French writer, ANDRE GIDE. This source has also confirmed the information set forth above to the effect that the subject spends most of his time in his apartment studying and writing. On occasions he has been observed to visit the Banco Latino-Americano on Calle Balderas and the book store, "Editorial Quetzal" which is located in the Pasaje Iturbide, Mexico City.

Confidential Informant [] has brought to the attention of this office an article appearing in "Publishers' Weekly" dated June 23, 1945 on page 2434. The article was written by Verian Fry, who, as the secretary of the Emergency Rescue Committee of the League of American Writers, materially aided a number of refugee authors who leave Europe and enter the United States. In this article he traces the activities of some of them since arriving in this country.

The article notes that VICTOR SERGE, author of "From Lenin to Stalin" (Pioneer Publishers, 1937) and "Russia Twenty Years Afterwards" (Hillman Curl, 1937) is now in Mexico writing his memoirs.

In the same source it is noted that BORIS NIKOLAEVSKY, author of "Azev, The Spy" (Doubleday Doran, 1934) and "Karl Marx - Man and Fighter" (Lippencott, 1936) is now living in New York City where he is working on a history of the Russian Communist Party and its links with the Communist Parties of other countries.

FOIA(b) (7) - (D)

Confidential Informant [] believes that both of these persons have been members of the Communist Party and have been prominent in its affairs internationally. The informant has no recent specific information indicating that these persons are now involved in the Communist movement but has been advised in literary circles that NIKOLAEVSKY has considerable material for his book concerning the links of the Russian Party with other Parties.

The above information is being brought to the attention of the Bureau and the New York City Field Division for whatever action is deemed desirable. No action is recommended by this office. No further inquiries will be made in this direction unless the Bureau so requests, but in the event of further information it will be promptly furnished to the Bureau.

If the Bureau desires to review this article for its numerous references to refugee authors aided by the aforementioned committee in entering the United States who are now employed by the Office of War Information, the article will be available in Boston for transmittal.

V. SERGE, EXPELLED BY COMMUNISTS, 57

One of Comintern's Founders
Dies in Mexico—He Spent 8
Years in Siberian Exile

Victor Serge, a disillusioned Russian Communist who had long lived in exile, died Tuesday night in his home in Mexico City of a heart attack, at the age of 57, according to word received here yesterday at the offices of The New Leader, 7 East Fifteenth Street.

A founder of the Communist International, Mr. Serge was expelled from the Russian Communist party in 1928 and exiled to Siberia. His punishment led many world literary figures, including André Gide, winner of this year's Nobel Prize for Literature, to protest vigorously to the Soviet Government. After eight years Mr. Serge was permitted to leave Russia, and he went to France. On the fall of France he fled to Mexico, the only country to offer him a haven. Until his death he hoped, in vain, for a United States visa.

Mr. Serge was born in Brussels, the son of a revolutionary exiled by the Czar. After early activities with the anarchists in Barcelona, the son went to Russia soon after the Revolution of 1917, joined the Bolshevik movement, fought in the civil war against the White Russians, and in 1919 became a member of the executive committee of the newly formed Comintern. His expulsion in 1928 followed charges of sympathy with Leon Trotsky.

At his death Mr. Serge was a democratic socialist, opposed to totalitarianism of every variety. He often said that his disillusionment with Stalinism began with the suppression of the sailors' revolt in Kronstadt in 1921.

He was the author of several novels, of which the latest, "Long Dust," published here in English a year ago, dealt with the 1940 defeat of France. Of his other works, "Russia—Twenty Years After," an anti-Stalinist appraisal, was issued here in 1937. In recent years he had been the Mexican correspondent of The New Leader.

According to our files the correct name of the above-captioned individual is Boris I. Nicolaevsky.

Under date of April 30, 1946, a summary report regarding this individual was received by the Bureau from an intelligence agency. According to this report, the subject at that time was about 55 years of age. He was born in East Russia and was the son of a village Priest. As a young man he joined the Russian Socialist Democratic Party (Menshevik faction) and during World War I he was exiled to the Province of Astrakhan. After the Revolution of 1917 he joined the Samara Socialist Government and later when the Soviet Army occupied the Volga, went to Siberia. Later he came to Moscow and at that time the Soviet Government included both Bolsheviks and Left Socialists. He established himself in Moscow as a contributor to both "Izvestia" and "Pravda."

In 1922 he was sent to Berlin as official representative of the Marx-Engels Institute of Moscow and was connected with the publication of the complete works of Marx and Engels in Frankfurt, Germany, which were sponsored by both the Soviet Government and the German Communist Party. In 1933 he left Germany and moved to Paris where he became closely identified with the Second Internationale and also became associated with the Russian Historian, Vladimir Burtzeff, who was considered the greatest authority on revolutionary movements in Russia, and who was famous for unmasking agent provocateurs among the Russian Revolutionaries in exile. (S-2) (U)

In Paris Nicolaevsky was connected with the Soviet General Krivitsky, who subsequently defected and who was apparently murdered in Washington, D. C. February 10, 1941. He was also active in the publication of the history of the

In November, 1940 Nicolaevsky came to the United States, reportedly sponsored by the Jewish Labor Committee in New York. He was stated to have been a recipient for two years of a $200 a month subsidy from the Rockefeller Foundation. He is a prolific writer of the anti-Stalin school, and was against American aid to the USSR when Germany invaded Russia. He was bitterly opposed to DeGaulle, whom he denounced as a Bolshevik. He is a close friend of the French Socialist, Boris Souvarin. (S-2) ~~(S)~~ (u)

In New York Nicolaevsky is the moving spirit of the Russian "Socialist Messenger," which is the organ of the Russian Social Revolutionary and Social Democratic (Menshevik) Parties opposed to the present Soviet regime. According to this report, pro-Soviet literary political circles in the United States claim that Nicolaevsky is a British agent for financial reasons and since the death of Leon Trotsky, Nicolaevsky is his ideological successor. Conservative Russian circles in New York consider Nicolaevsky a patriot and democrat of the former "Premier Alexander Kerenski's faction." (100-36676-32 - IDA report) (S-2) ~~(S)~~ (u)

On August 4, 1942, information was made available to the Bureau by an unknown outside source regarding the establishment of the American Labor Archive and Research Institute. According to this source, Boris I. Nicolaevsky, who was formerly at the head of a similar institute in Europe, was listed as Director. According to this source, Nicolaevsky is a noted historian and author and was at one time Director of the Paris Institute of Social History. (100-135250-1)

Boris Nikolaevsky attended a testimonial dinner in New York city for the 70 year old social revolutionary, Victor Chernov, on March 26, 1944. (100-275683-166)

According to the report of an intelligence agency dated May 15, 1944, Boris I. Nikolaevsky was listed as a member of the staff of "Socialistichesky Vestnik" (Socialist Courier), which was a New York biweekly organ of the Foreign Delegation of the Russian Social Democratic Labor Party (Menshevik) which had a circulation of about one thousand. The organ regards itself as "A small laboratory" for "projects for the progress of Russia and the whole world." (100-7826-27, page 9) ~~(S)~~ (u)

This agency furnished a report dated September 13, 1944 which reflected Boris Nikolaevsky spent years in Germany and France after he was exiled from Russia in 1922. He is deemed an expert on World revolutionary movements, especially the Russian, and has wide contacts in labor circles in many countries. According to this report, he is an inveterate ideological foe of Stalinism. He is a brother-in-law of the liquidated Soviet Premier Alexei Rykov. He has concentrated for years on the disclosure of what he regards as Communist Machiavellianism in the foreign and domestic policies of Soviet Russia. (100-7826-31, page 4) ~~(S)~~ (u)

Information was furnished to us December 15, 1944 reflecting that Boris Nikolaevsky was one of the officers of the Russian Literary Fund. It was indicated that this organization engaged in relief activities on behalf of Russian intellectuals outside the USSR. (100-338683-1) [] (S-3) (u)

On December 21, 1946 Nikolaevsky contacted the law firm of Robert Morris and Martin Richmond, New York City, and arranged for them to represent Kirill Mikhailovich Alexeev with a view to keeping him in the United States. Alexeev was formerly the Commercial Attache at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City. Information has been submitted to the Bureau from a reliable source abroad that Boris I. Nikolaevsky, who, according to the Bureau files, is a White Russian and who is active in the Russian Social Democratic movement, is writing a history of the Vlasov movement for the New York Russian language publication "Novy Zhurnal". [These series of articles allegedly appear in Issue No. 18, dated 1948, and in subsequent issues of this publication.] (S)(u)

The Bureau files reflect that this publication is distributed at 417 Lafayette Street, New York 3, New York.

The Bureau desires that you obtain two copies of these articles on the Vlasov movement and forward them to the Bureau. In the event that it is not possible to obtain copies of the publications in which these articles appear, photostatic copies of the articles which probably could be obtained from the New York Public Library would suffice.

It is desired that these articles be obtained immediately and forwarded to the Bureau.

Rebulet 1/5/50.

Copies of the "Novy Zhurnal" ("New Review") may be purchased from Mrs. M. E. ZETLIN, 112 West 72nd Street, New York City, editor of this Russian language newspaper.

According to Mrs. ZETLIN, issues #20, 1948 and #21, 1949, the latter being the current issue, do not contain any further articles by BORIS I. NIKOLAEVSKY on the Vlasov Movement. Mrs. ZETLIN stated that NIKOLAEVSKY is expected to complete this article in the near future and she will advise this office when the article will appear in the "New Review."

Regarding the "History of the Vlasov Movement" by LABS, it is pointed out that on Page 213 of issue #19, 1948, of the "New Review," NIKOLAEVSKY in the article indicates that LABS, the author of this work, wrote the same in November 1944, by order of the German High Command. It is also noted that a postscript on the same page states in substance that it is unfortunate that this document is available to the author only in a short excerpt.

On Page 234 of issue #19, it is indicated that the work of LABS was more of a study to the reaction to Vlasov when he toured the German Eastern Front and spread propaganda among the Russian prisoners. It appears that LABS' report, made for the purposes of the German Command, resulted in forbidding Vlasov to make propaganda in any Russian territory under German occupation, apparently for fear of the power he was developing.

In view of the aforementioned information regarding LABS' "History of the Vlasov Movement," it appears to have been a German military publication and would not be available.

Unless advised to the contrary, no effort will be made to contact BORIS NIKOLAEVSKY to request of him a copy of this LABS' excerpt in his post-session.

further articles by Boris Nikolaevsky concerning the Vlasov Movement.
However, Nikolaevsky is expected to complete these articles which will appear in future issues of Novy Zhurnal.

Regarding the "History of the Vlasov Movement," by Iabs, it has been ascertained that Iabs wrote this history for the German government during the last war; it was never published and is not
